BILL BIDWILL

▲ President

William V. Bidwill's association with the Cardinals, a relationship that began as a child ball boy on Chicago's south side and continues today as owner and president, marks its 47th year.

The 60-year-old Chicago native presides over the oldest continuous professional football franchise dating back to 1898 and, along with the Chicago Bears, one of two charter members of the National Football League (1920).

The Cardinals have remained in the Bidwill family since William's father, Charles, a prominent Chicago sports figure and member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, purchased the team in 1932. Charles ran the club until his death in the Cardinals' NFL championship year of 1947. His wife, Violet, guided the franchise's fortunes for the next 15 years followed jointly by their two sons, William and Charles, Jr. (Stormy). William became sole owner in 1972.

Named a Cardinal vice president during his undergraduate days at Georgetown University, William Bidwill returned to Chicago from the Navy in 1956 to begin assisting family interests that included football. When the Cardinals moved to St. Louis in 1960, Bidwill returned to the organization on a full-time basis.

Bidwill remains involved in all areas of the day-to-day Cardinal operation. The Cardinals' award-winning training complex in south Tempe, Arizona, which has housed the organization since September, 1990, is the latest major project he has overseen.

Also an active supporter of various civic and charitable organizations and endeavors, Bidwill directed the formation of Cardinal Charities, the team's organization dedicated to supporting worthy Arizona causes, shortly after the Cardinals arrived in the state.

Bidwill has served on many league committees in the past. He was a pivotal voice in Arizona's successful bid for Super Bowl XXVII in 1993, and later, a compromise that has reserved the league's showcase game for the Valley of the Sun in 1996 (Super Bowl XXX) instead. Additionally, he co-chairs the Bert Bell Player Benefit Retirement Board and serves on the executive committee of NFL Films.

Bidwill and his wife Nancy are the parents of five children: Sons William, Jr., Michael, Patrick, and Timothy, and daughter Nicole.

LARRY WILSON

▲ Vice President and General Manager

Larry Wilson, regarded as one of the greatest defensive backs in NFL history, continues his NFL career that spans 32 years as head of the Cardinals' football operations.

A Hall of Fame defensive back for the Cardinals during their first 13 seasons in St. Louis and one of only four players in franchise history to have his jersey retired, the 53-year-old Wilson's NFL career began with 13 seasons (1960-72) as a player and has continued with a variety of administrative posts.

Wilson started his climb up the team's organizational ladder as director of professional scouting (1973-76) and director of professional personnel (1977-88) for the next 16 years. He also guided the team as interim head coach for the final three games of the 1979 season, earning credit for victories over the San Francisco 49ers and the New York Giants.

Midway through the Cardinals' inaugural season in Phoenix in 1988, Wilson was appointed vice president and general manager to guide the franchise's football fortunes as it entered a new era in Arizona. Since, Wilson has hired a new head coach, Joe Bugel, played an active role in planning the Cardinals' state-of-the-art training complex, and taken a more prominent role in the team's draft decision making. He also instigated the Cardinals' change to red pants in 1990.

As a player, Wilson reached near-legendary status as a hard-hitting six-time all-pro and eight-time Pro Bowl free safety. His name is referenced throughout the Cardinal record book. He still owns club records for career interceptions (52), career interception yardage (800), career interception returns for touchdowns (5), and single-game interception return yardage (115). His 96-yard interception return for a touchdown against Cleveland on Dec. 19, 1965 remains the longest in Cardinal history and his 91-yard interception for a touchdown the following year against Philadelphia still ranks third on the same list. He led the Cardinals in interceptions six times and intercepted three passes in a single game twice.

In 1966, he enjoyed one of his finest seasons with an NFL-leading 10 interceptions while tying a league record by intercepting a pass in seven consecutive games.

Wilson also holds the Cardinal record for longest fumble return, an 88-yard jaunt for a touchdown at Green Bay on Dec. 21, 1969. It was one of two career fumbles he returned for touchdowns and one of 12 career fumbles he recovered, the latter ranking fifth in that category in Card annals.

Wilson was inducted into the Hall of Fame in January of 1978.

Born in Rigby, Idaho, Wilson was drafted as a running back out of the University of Utah in the seventh round in 1960. After converting to the defensive backfield due to injuries, Wilson and coach Chuck Drulis innovated one of today's most potent and exciting aspects of defensive football—the safety blitz.

Wilson and his wife, Nancy, reside in Scottsdale, Arizona.

JOE RHEIN

▲ Executive Vice President

Cardinal Executive Vice President Joe Rhein has proven Thomas Wolfe wrong. You can go home again. And he did.

The team's publicity director in St. Louis from 1972-76 and its assistant publicist in 1971, Rhein returned to the Cardinals in August of 1989 to serve as the administrative counterpart to Vice President and General Manager Larry Wilson after a 12-year hiatus at the National Football League office in New York.

Rhein's first year in Arizona was hectic. He played an instrumental role in the NFL's original award of Super Bowl XXVII to Arizona as an advisor to the Phoenix '93 Committee, the organization which shaped Arizona's presentation to NFL owners, and in the later compromise that has reserved Super Bowl XXX for Arizona in 1996.

Rhein has been a guiding voice in the formation of Cardinal Charities, and as its vice president, plays an active role in awarding the foundation's grants. He also played a major role in the development of the team's training complex in south Tempe, Arizona which opened in September of 1990.

Elected to the board of directors of the Phoenix Chamber of Commerce in 1991, he also is a member of the committee formed in 1990 by Phoenix Mayor Paul Johnson to promote the Valley of the Sun and Arizona.

The 44-year-old Rhein joined the NFL in 1977 as assistant to the president of the National Football Conference, a position he held until serving as the league's director of administration from 1983-89. In the latter capacity, Rhein coordinated the activities of the league office departments and was involved in the supervision of the NFL's international efforts, particularly the American Bowl series. He supervised the first three American Bowls in London (1986-88) and the first American Bowl in Tokyo (1989).

Additionally, Rhein served as secretary of the NFL Charities foundation and was involved in preparation of the league playing schedule and coordination of the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl Game from 1977-89.

Rhein began his career as assistant sports information director at Oklahoma State from 1969-71 following his 1969 graduation from the University of Missouri in journalism.

A native of Belleville, Illinois, Rhein and his wife, Barbara, reside in Scottsdale, Arizona with daughters Rachel and Jessica.

ERIK WIDMARK

▲ Director of Pro Personnel

Erik Widmark, 43, enters his third season as the Cardinals' director of pro personnel following his promotion from assistant in September, 1988 when Larry Wilson was named general manager. Widmark also will work with Cardinal tight ends for the second consecutive season.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Widmark spent five seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1983-88 as a scout, chief scout, director of pro personnel, and special assistant to the head coach.

Widmark joined the professional ranks following an extensive collegiate coaching career as an assistant at Cal Western, the University of San Diego, Cal Poly-Pomona, Pasadena City College, and the University of Oregon. He also served as head coach at Pasadena in 1979.

As offensive coordinator at Pasadena in 1978, the squad finished 11-1 and won the final Junior Rose Bowl by downing Jones County of Mississippi 38-9. As head coach the following year, Widmark's team posted an 8-3 mark and captured the school's second consecutive Potato Bowl, emblematic of the junior college championship in California.

A former wide receiver, Widmark played collegiately at Cal Western (now U.S. International) where he earned a bachelor's degree in physical education and a master's degree in education. He played for two seasons with the San Diego Chargers before two knee operations ended his playing career.

Widmark, a native of Iowa, was raised in Scottsdale, Arizona where he attended Arcadia High School. He and his wife, Cinda, reside in Phoenix with daughters Jessica (12) and Erika (9), and son Dallas (11).

JOE BUGEL

▲ Head Coach

Armed with a contagious, relentless attitude — "Nothing great is ever accomplished without enthusiasm!" — and preaching his Cardinal honor code — "Tough, aggressive, hard-nosed football" — Joe Bugel, 51, charges into his second season as head coach of the Phoenix Cardinals.

Although the trappings of position now surround the veteran coach—a contemporary office complete with mountain view on the second floor of the Cardinals' head-turning, state-of-the-art training complex in south Tempe, Arizona, the enviable desert climate for his Cardinals to nest, the necessary warm-weather wardrobe, and two rings from three Super Bowl appearances during nine unforgettable years as a Washington Redskin assistant—Bugel remains, above all, a tough guy, a man whose roots in rough-and-tumble, football-mad western Pennsylvania indelibly molded his psyche.

It started with his first coach at Munhall High School in Pittsburgh, Nick Kliskey.

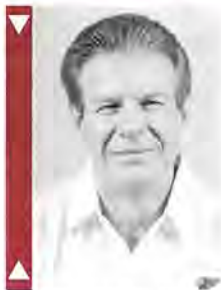

"He's one of the toughest guys I've ever been around," Bugel fondly reflects. "Everything was brute force and discipline. He left one lasting impression on me: If you are going to play football, you'd better be tough. You were either going to be tough or you would be run out of town."

His prep teammates nicknamed him Deacon after a local tough guy whom Bugel idolized. "He was a street fighter. A brawler. He was a tough, tough guy. He never lost," Bugel explains.

It continued as an undersized, overachieving offensive guard who arrived at Western Kentucky University as a walk-on and departed with a scholarship.

It continues today.

"We've got to be tough," he offers. "In the NFC East, you can't be scared!"

▲ The Outset

Bugel was born March 10, 1940 in Pittsburgh. Athletics consumed his formative years. At age 12, he was the catcher on a Pittsburgh youth baseball team that reached the Little League World Series final before losing to Redlands, Calif. He excelled in football (fullback and linebacker), basketball (he once scored 47 points in a game), baseball (catcher), and volleyball (setter) in high school.

But western Pennsylvania is football crazy so it came as no surprise that the gridiron captured the future coach's fancy.

Although Bugel was one of three children (older sister Elaine and younger brother, Tom, a three-year starting linebacker at Ohio State) of a family that owned an electroplating company, he served his time in the steel mills. He took a job in the mills after graduating from high school. Two weeks later, he knew that wasn't the life for him.

At the end of five years at Western, Bugel, a two-way star (offensive guard and linebacker), was a four-year starter who had led the Hilltoppers to a 27-0 Tangerine Bowl victory against the Otto Graham-coached Coast Guard Academy which still rates as "one of the greatest thrills of my career" according to Bugel. He was all-Ohio Valley Conference (OVC) in 1963. He was elected team captain by his sophomore year.

He also reflects upon the school's cross-state rivalry with Eastern Kentucky that has taken an ironic twist. Eastern's star quarterback during Bugel's playing days at Western was current Arizona State University Head Coach Larry Marmie. The two also began their coaching careers in the OVC—Bugel at Western Kentucky and Marmie at Morehead (Ky.) State. They used to share billing, now they share a stadium—Sun Devil Stadium.

Bugel was hired by Western in 1964 as a graduate assistant coach on a staff that also included another future NFL head coach, Atlanta's Jerry Glanville. As assistants—Bugel the offensive coordinator, Glanville the defensive coordinator—the two shared a makeshift office under the stands of the school's basketball bleachers and a tiny log cabin with no heat and one bed. At night after flipping a coin to see who slept in the bed, the two would map their futures on the back of pizza boxes. Bugel and Glanville later reunited in 1976 on the Detroit Lions' staff.

Bugel had escaped the steel-mill life.

▲ The Right Choice

Prior to joining the Cardinals in 1989 to accept his first head-coaching position, teams employing the 15-year NFL assistant posted a 144-82 record (.637 winning percentage), including 13 winning seasons and eight playoff appearances. Besides two Super Bowl rings, he participated in six conference championship games and 21 playoff tilts.

Those were the tangibles that attracted Cardinal Vice President and General Manager Larry Wilson to hire Bugel. The intangibles—the "Hogs"—convinced Wilson.

Nothing symbolizes the emotional loyalty Bugel always has evoked from those around him than those two words: "The Hogs!"

"The Hogs" were Bugel's fabled offensive linemen in Washington. It's a name he unknowingly coined himself in practice in 1982 by yelling "Let's go, Hogs." When the linemen took to the label, Bugel ordered t-shirts that had to be worn once a week. The moniker went public and then national as the Redskins continued to win.

"The Hogs" became NFL chic and an autumn obsession in the nation's capitol.

But it goes further. "The Hogs" were a bonding. Bugel was not just their coach, he was a Hog, too. He made them believe they were as important to winning as the more highly-publicized positions.

"We grew together," Bugel says. "We had nine glorious years together. Those guys are responsible for me being where I am today."

▲ The Coaching Ladder

En route to the NFL, Bugel left Western Kentucky to make coaching stops at three other colleges—Navy (1969-72), Iowa State (1973), and Ohio State (1974).

He broke into the professional ranks as offensive line coach for the Detroit Lions from 1975-76 followed by a four-year stop in Houston as offensive line coach from 1977-80. During his stay, the Oilers set club rushing and passing records in 1980 and led the NFL in fewest quarterback sacks in 1978.

His nine memorable years on Head Coach Joe Gibbs' staff in Washington began in 1981-82 as offensive coordinator and ended as assistant head coach-offense from 1983-89. Four Redskins offensive linemen—"Hogs"—earned Pro Bowl honors under Bugel's tutelage—Jeff Bostic, Joe Jacoby, Russ Grimm, and Mark May. A total of nine Redskins were voted to the offensive Pro Bowl squad a combined total of 20 times during his stay.

During Bugel's Washington tenure, the Redskins won two Super Bowls (XVII in 1983 and XXII in 1988) and reached the playoffs five times in nine years, posting a glittering 11-3 (.786) post-season record, three Super Bowl appearances, three NFC championships, and four division titles.

The Washington offense also evolved from a highly respected rushing attack to a pass-oriented style. The 1983 Redskin offense scored an NFL-record 541 points. The team boasted four 1,000-yard rushers (George Rogers from 1985-86, John Riggins from 1983-84), one 4,000-yard passer (Jay Schroeder, 1986), and nine 1,000-yard pass receivers (Gary Clark, 1986-87, '89; Art Monk, 1984-86, '89; Ricky Sanders, 1988; Charlie Brown, 1983) during Bugel's association with the high-powered offense. Additionally, Monk led the league in pass receiving in 1984 with an NFL single-season record of 106 receptions. Brown (78 receptions) led the NFC in pass receiving in 1983 while quarterback Joe Theismann (2,033 yards) led the NFC in passing in 1982.

▲ Personal

Bugel's years at Western Kentucky not only pointed him toward a coaching career, it also formed the foundation for his personal life.

Besides earning a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1963 and a master's degree in guidance and counseling in 1964 from the Bowling Green, Kentucky school, Bugel met an employee in Western's sports information office named Brenda Sage, a Tennessee native. Bugel, then an assistant coach, invited her on a date to a basketball game. Three months later they eloped.

Now 22 years later, they have three daughters: Angie (21), Holly (18), and Jennifer (14). They reside in Paradise Valley, Arizona.

JERRY RHOME

▲ Offensive Coordinator

Jerry Rhome, a former NFL quarterback who spent five seasons (1983-87) on the Washington Redskins' coaching staff with Phoenix Head Coach Joe Bugel, is the Cardinals' second-year offensive coordinator.

Rhyme made his mark quickly in 1990 as the Cardinal offense showed steady improvement from the previous season. Five hundred fifty-one additional rushing yards that averaged an extra 0.9 yards per rushing attempt, 12 fewer pass interceptions, and 13 less quarterback sacks for 94 fewer yards lost were just some of the visible signs of improvement. The balance of the attack also improved, finishing with a 59.7 percent/40.3 percent pass/run ratio compared to 70.7 percent/29.3 percent in 1989.

Rhyme, 50, credited with the rapid development of young Cardinal quarterback Timm Rosenbach, spent 1989 as quarterbacks coach for the Dallas Cowboys where he honed the skills of Troy Aikman.

During five seasons in Washington, Rhyme coached veteran signal callers Joe Theismann and Doug Williams while also overseeing the development of young quarterbacks Mark Rypien and Jay Schroeder. Rhyme helped guide a Redskin offense that finished in the NFL's top 10 four of his five seasons and qualified for two Super Bowls with two quarterbacks (Theismann and Williams).

Rhyme's two other NFL coaching stops were San Diego as offensive coordinator in 1988 and Seattle as both quarterbacks/receivers coach (1976-77) and offensive coordinator (1978-82) for the expansion Seahawks. During his stay, Rhyme nurtured his reputation for development of young quarterbacks with free agents Jim Zorn and Dave Krieg.

In 1963, the NFL Dallas Cowboys and American Football League N.Y. Jets drafted Rhyme to gain his professional rights prior to the senior season of his record-setting career at Tulsa. Rhyme eventually played four seasons for the Cowboys (1965-68) as a back-up quarterback before concluding his playing career with Cleveland (1969), Houston (1970), and the L.A. Rams (1971-72).

The Heisman Trophy runner-up and Walter Camp Trophy recipient in 1964, Rhyme began his collegiate playing career at Southern Methodist (1960-61) before transferring to Tulsa where he set 17 NCAA passing records. He returned to his alma mater to break into the coaching ranks from 1973-75 following his playing career.

Rhyme also earns credit for the early development of former Tulsa and Seattle Seahawk wide receiver Steve Largent, the NFL's all-time leading pass receiver. As quarterbacks and receivers coach and offensive coordinator at Tulsa for three years and later at Seattle, Rhyme tutored Largent during the early stages of his record-shattering career.

Rhyme, a Dallas native, and his wife, Sharon, have three children—daughters Shannon (21), and Nicole (18) and son Brett (11).

FRITZ SHURMUR

▲ Defensive Coordinator

Innovative Fritz Shurmur, the Cardinals' new defensive coordinator, is the lone new face on the Cardinals' 1991 coaching staff.

The 59-year-old coaching veteran begins his 17th season in the NFL after stints with the L.A. Rams (nine seasons), New England Patriots (four campaigns), and Detroit Lions (three years).

Shurmur joins the Cardinals following nine seasons improvising with the Rams' successful defense. The Riverview, Michigan native arrived in L.A. as the Rams' defensive line coach for the strike-shortened 1982 season. Named the team's defensive coordinator the next season, the Rams went from 27th to 15th in total defense. In 1984, L.A. climbed to 14th overall and third against the run.

Nineteen eighty-five and '86 began to produce dividends as the Rams led the NFL with 56 quarterback sacks in '85 and finished fifth in total defense both seasons, leading the squad to two playoff appearances. Following the strike of 1987, Shurmur's 1988 Ram defenders ranked ninth overall and again recorded a league-high 56 quarterback sacks.

However, it was Shurmur's injury-depleted defensive unit of 1989 that turned heads. Shurmur was forced to improvise, utilizing linebackers as down linemen and compensating for the absence of two regular inside linebackers until the season's 10th game. The unit allowed only three running backs to gain 100 yards, finished fifth in the NFC with 42 sacks, and led the Rams to two post-season victories.

L.A. reached post-season play six times during Shurmur's nine-year tenure.

Shurmur broke into the NFL with the Lions in 1975 as defensive line coach while another assistant, Joe Bugel, tutored Detroit's offensive linemen. Shurmur was named the Lions' defensive coordinator in 1977. Four campaigns in New England, the first two as defensive line coach, the last two as defensive coordinator, followed. Shurmur's 1979 Patriot defenders led the NFL with 57 sacks.

Shurmur's coaching career began as a graduate student in 1954 at his alma mater, Albion (Mich.) College, where he served as assistant football coach and swimming coach through 1962 before moving to the University of Wyoming as an assistant football coach. He was the Cowboys' defensive line coach from 1963-70 before being named head coach in 1971. As Wyoming's head coach for four seasons, Shurmur's teams led the nation in rushing defense twice and in total defense.

Shurmur authored a book entitled Coaching Team Defense in 1988.

Born July 15, 1932, Shurmur attended Wyandotte High School in his native Riverview, Michigan. At Albion, he was named all-Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association as a center and earned the conference most valuable player award, too. He also was named to the all-conference baseball team. He graduated with a master's degree in education administration in 1956.

Shurmur and his wife, Peggy Jane, reside in Phoenix. They have three children: Sally Ann Michalov (34), Scott (32), and Susie (28). Sally Ann, an award-winning sports reporter for the Casper Star-Tribune, was named the 1990 Wyoming sportswriter-of-the-year.

TED COTTRELL

▲ Defensive Line

Ted Cottrell, who helped mold Buffalo's defensive line into one of the NFL's strongest units as the Bills' defensive line coach for four seasons (1986-89), coaches the same position for the Cardinals for the second consecutive year.

Bills' nose tackle Fred Smerlas (1988) and defensive end Bruce Smith (1987-89) earned trips to the Pro Bowl and the '88 Bill defense ranked first in the AFC during Cottrell's Buffalo tenure.

Cottrell received his first taste of professional coaching as linebacker coach for Head Coach Marv Levy in Kansas City (1981-82) followed by two seasons (1984-85) as defensive line coach for the USFL New Jersey Generals. He rejoined Levy with the Bills in 1986.

A native of Chester, Pa., Cottrell, 43, entered the coaching ranks at Rutgers from 1973-80 as defensive line coach (1973-79) and defensive coordinator (1980). In 1976, Rutgers led the nation in total defense, rushing defense, and scoring defense, and finished unbeaten with a no. 17 national ranking. Cottrell returned to Rutgers as defensive coordinator for the 1983 season following his stay in Kansas City.

Chosen in the seventh round of the 1969 draft by Atlanta, Cottrell played two seasons as a linebacker with the Falcons (1970-71) and completed his playing career in the CFL with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1972).

Cottrell, who also attended Rutgers, graduated from Delaware Valley College in Doylestown, Penn. He and his wife, Barbara, have one son, Theodore (8).

BOBBY HAMMOND

▲ Running Backs

Former NFL running back Bobby Hammond, 39, the New York Jets' running backs coach for seven seasons prior to joining Phoenix, coaches the same position for the Cardinals for the second campaign.

Hammond tutored seventh-round draft choice Johnny Johnson through a storybook rookie season in 1990 that culminated with an appearance in the Pro Bowl, making Johnson only the third Cardinal rookie running back (Johnny Roland in 1966 and Ottis Anderson in 1979 were the others) accorded that honor.

In 1988, three of Hammond's proteges—Freeman McNeil (944 yards), Johnny Hector (561 yards), and Roger Vick (540 yards)—finished among the top 20 rushers in the AFC, making the Jets' trio the three highest-ranking backs on one team in the NFL.

Hammond played five seasons in the NFL—three and one-half with the New York Giants and one and one-half with Washington. The highlight of his playing career came in 1977 when he was the Giants' most valuable player with 1,466 combined yards, posted a team-high 577 yards rushing, and finished second in the NFL with a 10.4-yard punt return average.

Following his midseason release in 1979, Hammond joined the Redskins where he rushed for 265 yards on 45 carries and caught 24 passes for 203 yards in 1980.

The all-time career rushing leader at Morgan State University with 2,548 yards on 590 rushes, Hammond surpassed the collegiate exploits of Leroy Kelly and Frenchy Fuqua at the Baltimore, Maryland school from 1971-75.

A native of Orangeburg, South Carolina, Hammond attended high school in Bayside, New York where he was a three-year all-city football standout. He and his wife, Deborah, have three children—sons Robert (11) and Jon (9) and daughter Alexandria (4).

JIM JOHNSON

▲ Defensive Secondary

Jim Johnson, the Cardinals' defensive line coach from 1986-89, enters his second season as the team's defensive secondary coach.

Johnson's 1990 return to the secondary after coaching Cardinal defensive linemen was productive as his defensive backs ranked fourth in the National Football Conference in pass defense.

Johnson, a 24-year coaching veteran at the professional and collegiate levels, began his professional coaching career with one-year stints at Jacksonville (1985) and Oklahoma (1984) in the United States Football League following seven years on the Notre Dame coaching staff.

He joined the Fighting Irish as secondary coach in 1977 when the school claimed the national championship. In 1981 under Head Coach Gerry Faust, Johnson was promoted to defensive coordinator and then to assistant head coach in 1983. In 1980, his defenders ranked fifth nationally in scoring defense while his 1982 and 1983 clubs finished 10th and 14th, respectively, in NCAA total defense.

An all-Big Eight quarterback and team most valuable player at Missouri in 1962, Johnson played in three post-season games—the 1960 Orange Bowl, and the Bluebonnet Bowl and East-West Shrine Game in 1962. He was named the Bluebonnet Bowl's MVP.

Following his college days, Johnson played two seasons with the Buffalo Bills from 1963-64.

He launched his coaching career at Joplin (Mo.) High School in 1965. After two seasons at Joplin, Johnson was named head coach at Missouri Southern College in 1967. He later served four-year college tenures at Drake (1969-72) and Indiana (1973-76) as defensive coordinator and linebacker coach, respectively.

In all, Johnson coached in six bowl games—1971 Pecan, 1972 Pioneer, 1977 and '78 Cotton, 1980 Sugar, and 1982 Liberty.

Born May 26, 1941 in Maywood, Ill., Johnson earned a bachelor's degree in education and a master's degree in physical education at Missouri.

He and his wife, Vicky, have two children, Scott (27) and Michelle (24).

TOM LOVAT

▲ Offensive Line

Tom Lovat, who began his second tour on the Cardinals' coaching staff last season, begins his second season as the team's offensive line coach and his 11th year in the NFL.

Lovat made his return to the Cardinals noteworthy in 1990 as his line allowed only 43 quarterback sacks, the lowest total by the team in 11 seasons. His charges also paved the way for rookie running back Johnny Johnson to earn Pro Bowl honors.

Lovat, 52, a former head coach at the University of Utah, logged nine seasons in the NFL prior to spending 1989 as the offensive line coach at Wyoming.

Lovat spent 1985-88 with Indianapolis as assistant head coach-offensive line when the Colts led the AFC in rushing. His four seasons in Circle City followed four seasons (1981-84) in St. Louis as the Cardinals' offensive line coach, and one campaign (1980) coaching the same position for Green Bay. His first professional assignment was as a defensive coach for the Canadian Football League's Saskatchewan Roughriders in 1971.

A native of Bingham Canyon, Utah, Lovat is a 1961 graduate of the University of Utah where he was a three-year football and baseball letterman for the Utes, earning all-Skyline Conference accolades on the diamond.

While completing his 1968 master's degree at Utah, Lovat began his coaching career in 1967 with the Utes and later at Idaho State. He returned to Utah in 1972 as an assistant and was named the school's head coach in 1974, a position he held through the 1976 season.

Lovat moved to Stanford with Head Coach Bill Walsh from 1977-79 when the Pac-10 Conference school won two bowl games, downing Louisiana State in the 1977 Sun Bowl and Georgia in the 1978 Bluebonnet Bowl.

Lovat and his wife, Lyn, have three children: Daughter Johna (28) and sons Matthew (23) and Mark (21).

MIKE MURPHY

▲ Inside Linebackers and Quality Control

Mike Murphy changes roles in his second season on the Cardinals' coaching staff.

A member of the Detroit Lions' coaching staff from 1985-89 under head coaches Darryl Rogers and Wayne Fontes, Murphy joined the Cardinals as a defensive assistant and quality control coach in 1990. He moves to inside linebackers coach for 1991 with the arrival of new defensive coordinator Fritz Shurmur.

Murphy, 46, an offensive assistant and linebackers coach for the Lions, brings a 26-year coaching resume to his new duties.

Following his playing days as a guard and linebacker at Huron (S.D.) College, the New York City native began his coaching career in 1966 in Woonsocket, S.D. and later in the Colorado high school ranks in Boulder and Denver.

He moved into the collegiate arena as an assistant at the University of Vermont from 1970-73 as defensive line coach and at Idaho State in 1974 where he advanced to defensive coordinator by 1976. The following year he became linebackers coach at Western Illinois, then moved into the professional ranks as defensive coordinator for the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League in 1979. He later spent one season as defensive line coach for the Chicago Blitz of the United States Football League in 1984.

Murphy has two children—son Sam (19) and daughter Sarah (16).

JOE PASCALE

▲ Outside Linebackers

Sixth-year Cardinal defensive assistant Joe Pascale, 45, will turn his attention to the Phoenix outside linebackers in 1991 where he will continue to oversee the rapid development of Ken Harvey, who posted a team-high 10 quarterback sacks in 1990.

A veteran of 24 years of coaching, Pascale joined the Cardinals in 1986 after serving as defensive backs coach for the United States Football League's New Jersey Generals from 1984-85.

Prior to his USFL tenure, Pascale held assistant positions in the Canadian Football League. He served two seasons with the Ottawa Rough Riders, handling the defensive line in 1982 and quarterbacks and receivers in 1983. Previously, he was employed by the Montreal Alouettes, working as defensive line coach and player personnel director in 1980, then promoted to defensive coordinator in 1981 when he also assumed the defensive line and special teams duties.

Pascale entered the coaching field in 1967 as a graduate assistant at the University of Connecticut where he starred as an all-East linebacker as a senior. After two seasons as an assistant coach for UConn's freshmen team, Pascale moved to the University of Rhode Island in 1970. He coached four years at Rhode Island, overseeing the linebackers for one season and serving as defensive coordinator and secondary coach from 1971-73.

Pascale accepted a job at Idaho State with similar coordinator responsibilities in 1974 and was then appointed the Bengals' head coach in 1976. He moved to Princeton in 1977, spending one season as linebacker coach and two campaigns as defensive coordinator and secondary coach.

Pascale has spent 21 years as a defensive coach. During his tenure with the Generals, the team advanced to the USFL playoffs both years with records of 14-4 in 1984 and 11-7 in 1985. Pascale came to the Cardinals after being associated with playoff teams in each of his previous six seasons in professional football.

A native of New York City, he earned bachelor's and master's degrees in education at Connecticut and completed an advanced graduate curriculum in education administration at UConn as well.

Born April 17, 1946, Pascale and his wife, Lucille, have a 14-year-old son, Joseph.

TED PLUMB

▲ Receivers

Ted Plumb, a 17-year NFL coaching veteran, is the Cardinals' second-year receivers coach. Under Plumb's tutelage in 1990, wide receivers Ricky Proehl, Ernie Jones, and Roy Green became only the third trio of Cardinal receivers to each catch over 40 passes in the same season. Proehl, a consensus all-rookie selection, blossomed quickly under Plumb's watchful eye to become the first rookie to lead the team in receiving in 40 years (Bob Shaw in 1950).

Prior to joining the Cardinals last season, Plumb served Philadelphia as assistant head coach-offense from 1986-89 during the Eagles' rise to the playoffs and the development of Pro Bowl quarterback Randall Cunningham. Plumb spent the previous six seasons in Chicago as receivers coach for the Bears, including the 1985 Super Bowl championship season.

Plumb, 51, broke into the professional ranks as offensive backfield coach for the New York Giants in 1974 before moving to Atlanta as quarterbacks and receivers coach for the Falcons from 1977-79.

A native of Reno, Nevada, Plumb was raised in northern California and played for the Buffalo Bills in 1962 following a successful collegiate career at Baylor as a wide receiver. He began his coaching career in the Texas prep ranks at Raymond High School (1963-64) and Lubbock High School (1965) before moving to Cerritos (Calif.) Junior College from 1966-67.

Three seasons (1968-70) at Texas Christian as receivers/tight ends coach, one (1971) at Tulsa and two (1972-73) at Kansas in the same role followed before his initial NFL job with the Giants in 1974.

Plumb and his wife, Marianna, have three children—sons Loyal (29) and John (28) and daughter Molly (22).

PETE RODRIGUEZ

▲ Special Teams

Former University of Arizona graduate assistant coach Pete Rodriguez, a 25-year coaching veteran at the high school, college, and professional levels who spent the 1988-89 seasons as special teams coach of the Los Angeles Raiders, will coach the same position for the Phoenix Cardinals for the second consecutive season.

In 1990, his special teamers led the National Football Conference in punt coverage by allowing just 6.3 yards per return, a figure that also ranked second in the entire NFL.

In Rodriguez's first season with the Raiders, his prize pupil, Tim Brown, led the NFL in kickoff returns and earned a Pro Bowl berth. The following season, 1989, the Raiders' ranked third in the league in both kickoff and punt coverage.

A Chicago native, Rodriguez spent the 1968-69 seasons at Arizona coaching linebackers under head coaches Darrell Mudra and Bob Weber following his collegiate playing career as a offensive guard and linebacker at Western State College in Colorado and two years as a high school head coach in Colorado.

He later served as defensive coordinator at Western Illinois (1970-73), Florida State (1974-75), and Iowa State (1976-78) before a four-year stint as head coach at Western Illinois from 1979-82. During his three seasons at Iowa State, the Cyclones enjoyed the school's greatest run of success, winning eight games each season, a span that included two consecutive victories over Nebraska.

Rodriguez, 51, broke into professional football in 1983-84 as defensive line coach for the USFL Michigan Panthers. En route to the USFL's inaugural-season championship in 1983, the Panthers, paced by the defensive line, registered 76 quarterback sacks. Rodriguez spent the 1985 season as defensive line coach for the USFL's Denver Gold, and after the Gold merged with the Jacksonville Bulls following the season, Rodriguez made stops as defensive coordinator at Northern Iowa in 1986 and the Canadian Football League's Ottawa Rough Riders in 1987.

Born July 25, 1940, Rodriguez has two daughters—Regina (27) and Marla (25). Marla is the assistant sports information director at Marshall University.

BOB ROGUCKI

▲ Strength and Conditioning

Bob Rogucki (row-GUS-key), strength and conditioning coach at West Point from 1983-89, begins his second year in the same capacity for the Cardinals.

Rogucki's new strength and conditioning program played a significant role in the 1990 Cardinal team's ability to have 17 of 22 starters answer the bell in all 16 games, including perfect slates for the offensive line and defensive secondary.

Rogucki, 38, also worked as an assistant for the Washington Redskins during their summer training camps at Dickinson College in Carlisle, Pennsylvania for seven years.

Rogucki joined the staff at West Point after similar posts at Weber State (1982) and as an assistant at Penn State (1981).

A native of Rosemont, West Virginia, he was an offensive lineman and linebacker as a high school and college athlete. He graduated from Glenville State College in his home state in 1975 before coaching football, basketball, and baseball on the high school level until accepting his first college coaching position at Penn State in 1981.

The author of several articles on strength and conditioning and a frequent speaker at clinics and public engagements, Rogucki and his wife, Mary, have two children—son Charlie (11) and daughter Katie (7).

GEORGE BOONE

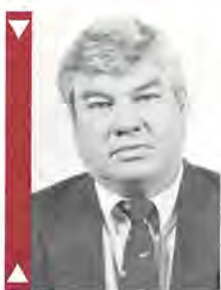

▲ Director of Player Personnel

George Boone, a 23-year veteran of the Cardinals' organization, has served as director of player personnel since 1973.

He oversees the club's scouting and drafting operations, directs the team's full-time scouts, and manages the team's involvement with the National Scouting combine, a personnel organization utilized by most NFL teams in pooling scouting reports.

Before joining the Cardinals, Boone held a scouting position with Central-Eastern Professional Organization (CEPO), a scouting combine also used by NFL teams. He worked three years for CEPO before accepting the assistant player personnel director's post with the Cards in 1968.

A native of Louisville, Kentucky, the 53-year-old Boone is an alumnus of the University of Kentucky where he was a three-year starter at offensive and defensive tackle from 1957-59. He earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in education at Kentucky where he also served as an assistant football coach for six years (1960-65).

He and his wife, Dedee, have four daughters and a son. They reside in Phoenix.

BILL BIDWILL, JR.

▲ Scout

Bill Bidwill, Jr., who, like his father, grew up actively participating in many phases of the club's football operation, begins his sixth season as a member of the scouting staff.

Born in St. Louis, Bidwill followed his father's lead by attending Georgetown University in Washington, D.C., majoring in finance and earning a bachelor's degree in business administration in 1985. He also played four years of rugby for Georgetown during his undergraduate days.

Since joining the team's scouting staff in 1985, Bidwill has worked closely with player personnel director George Boone. In 1988, Bidwill engineered the department's conversion to a computerized scouting information data bank. The club's scouting staff now sports laptop computers and floppy disks instead of volumes of notebooks and handwritten reports.

He also serves as co-producer for the Cardinals' weekly team television show.

Bidwill and his wife, Nicole, reside in Tempe, Arizona with their daughters Josephine (2) and infant Samantha.

Bo BOLINGER

▲ Scout

Bo Bolinger, a 20-year member of the Cardinals' organization, has been primarily responsible for collegiate scouting in the far West.

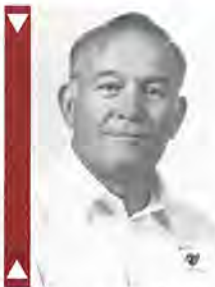

Prior to joining the Cardinals in 1971, Bolinger coached on the collegiate level for 11 years and spent two seasons as offensive line coach with the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Oklahoma in 1956 following his playing days with the Sooners. After a stop on the high school level, Bolinger coached the offensive and defensive lines at the University of Denver from 1958-60. He accepted the defensive coordinator's post at Tulsa the following season, handling that role for two years.

In 1963, he moved to New Mexico as offensive and defensive coordinator. After five years with the Lobos, Bolinger spent one season (1968) as offensive coordinator at Utah State before joining the CFL.

As a player at Oklahoma, Bolinger earned all-America recognition in 1955 and twice was named an all-Big Eight Conference guard.

The 58-year-old Bolinger and his wife, Barbara, have three daughters and four grandchildren and live in Tempe, Arizona.

HARRY GILMER

▲ Scout

Harry Gilmer, a 28-year veteran of NFL coaching, begins his ninth season as a Cardinal scout.

Gilmer began his coaching and scouting career with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1957. Four years later, he joined the Minnesota Vikings in a similar capacity.

In 1965, he was named head coach of the Detroit Lions, a position he held for two seasons, before arriving in St. Louis in 1967 for the first of two tenures as the Cardinals' quarterbacks coach.

In 1970, he tutored the signal-callers in Atlanta only to return to St. Louis in 1975 for a seven-year stint as quarterbacks coach.

An all-America quarterback at the University of Alabama, Gilmer was the first player chosen in the 1948 NFL draft by Washington. He earned all-pro honors in 1950 and '52 before retiring as a player after the 1956 season.

Gilmer and his wife, Katherine, reside in O'Fallon, Missouri. They have a son, three daughters, and seven grandchildren.

CARL HAIRSTON

▲ Scout

Carl Hairston, better known as "Big Daddy" to NFL fans, begins his administrative career on the Cardinals' scouting staff after retiring as a player following the 1990 season.

The owner of 1,141 career tackles and 94 quarterback sacks, Hairston appeared in 234 NFL games (184 starts) and 15 playoff games over 15 seasons.

Hairston, 38, joined Phoenix for the 1990 season after six campaigns with Cleveland (1984-89) and seven with Philadelphia (1976-83). With three starting assignments in 16 contests, he contributed 15 tackles and one quarterback sack in his only season as a Cardinal.

At one time in 1990 the NFL's oldest defensive player and the third oldest player overall to the Jets' Pat Leahy (39) and the Chiefs' Mike Webster (38), Hairston was a mainstay of Cleveland's defense for six seasons. He was drafted by Philadelphia in 1976 (seventh round) and became an eight-year starter for the Eagles until his 1984 trade to Cleveland. In Philadelphia, Hairston surpassed 100 tackles five consecutive years (1977-81) and was the Eagles' defensive captain his last five seasons. In Cleveland, Hairston played in 92 games (75 starts), collecting 40 or more tackles in five of his six seasons with the Browns.

Hairston holds a bachelor's degree in physical education from Maryland-Eastern Shore and lives in Phoenix with his wife, Robin, and their son, Carl Jr., and daughter, Crystal.

JERRY HARDAWAY

▲ Scout

Jerry Hardaway, who has coached extensively at the college and high school levels, begins his fourth season on the Cardinals' scouting staff.

The 39-year-old Hardaway coached running backs and the defensive secondary during a three-year tenure at the University of California (1984-86) where he also coordinated the Golden Bears' film exchange program and was utilized in national recruiting efforts.

Prior to joining the Cal staff, Hardaway spent six seasons (1978-83) under legendary Head Coach Eddie Robinson as running backs and special teams coach at Grambling State. During Hardaway's stay, the Tigers registered a 49-14-4 record with four conference championships.

Hardaway began his collegiate coaching career at Memphis State where he tutored tight ends, offensive tackles, and special teams from 1975-77.

He also coached on the high school level, serving as head coach of Bolton H.S. in Memphis-Arlington, Tenn. in 1974 and head coach and athletic director at his alma mater, Salesian Prep in Richmond, Calif., prior to joining the Cards.

As a player, Hardaway lettered as a fullback and tight end at Southern Illinois University where he was named co-captain in 1973.

Hardaway graduated from SIU with a degree in speech education in 1974 and earned a master's degree in sports administration from Grambling State in 1979. He and his wife, Lisa, have a son, Jason (4), and a daughter, Jheri (2). They reside in Cary, N.C.

RALPH HAWKINS

▲ Scout

Ralph Hawkins, a 21-year veteran of the NFL coaching ranks, begins his first season with the Cardinals as an area scout.

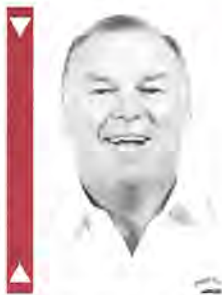

A native of Washington, D.C., Hawkins broke into the NFL coaching ranks with Buffalo from 1969-71 before joining Head Coach George Allen's staff at Washington from 1972-77. After spending the 1978 season with the Baltimore Colts, Hawkins was named defensive coordinator with the N.Y. Giants from 1979-81, then spent eight seasons as secondary coach for Head Coach Chuck Knox in Buffalo (1981-82) and Seattle (1983-88).

Most recently, Hawkins was Head Coach Joe Walton's defensive coordinator for the N.Y. Jets in 1989. In all, he's been associated with nine playoff teams: Washington (1972-74, '76), Buffalo (1981), and Seattle (1983-84, '87-88).

Hawkins has the distinction of coaching two of the NFL's premier safeties in Hall of Famer Kenny Houston (Washington) and former Seattle all-pro Kenny Easley. His 1984 Seahawk defense returned seven interceptions for touchdowns (second to the league mark of nine by San Diego in 1961) while the unit established the single-game mark with four thefts returned for scores versus Kansas City on November 4, 1984.

A quarterback, running back, and defensive back at the University of Maryland from 1954-56, Hawkins first tasted the coaching profession at Bishop O'Connell High (Arlington, Va.) in 1958. After serving one season as a graduate assistant at Maryland in 1959, he spent brief stints on the coaching staffs at Southern Methodist (1961), Kentucky (1962-65), West Point (1966), Maryland (1967) and the University of Cincinnati (1968).

Born May 4, 1935, Hawkins and his wife, Carol Ann, have three daughters: Mary Kathleen Keeley (23), Kristin (21) and Karianne (20). They reside in Bethany Beach, Delaware.

BILL JOBKO

▲ Scout

Bill Jobko begins his third season on the Cardinals' scouting staff following a 23-year playing, coaching, and administrative career with the Atlanta Falcons' organization.

The 55-year-old Jobko served the Falcons as a scout for 10 years, as linebackers coach in 1968, and most recently as director of pro personnel from 1978 through the 1988 season. His nine-year Atlanta playing career was highlighted by his notoriety as the Falcons' defensive captain during the team's inaugural season in 1966.

The former NFL linebacker also played for the Rams (1958-62) and Vikings (1963-65).

A standout linebacker and offensive guard as a collegian at Ohio State, Jobko played on Buckeye teams that won three Big Ten championships, two Rose Bowls (1955, '58), and two national championships (1954, '57). He was named the most valuable player of the Buckeyes' 1957 national titleist.

Jobko and his wife, Julie, the parents of five children, reside in Lilburn, Ga.

JOHN OMOHUNDRO

▲ Head Trainer

John Omohundro begins the silver anniversary season of his association with the Cardinals. He enters his 21st campaign as the team's head trainer.

Following high school graduation, Omohundro was named head trainer at the College of Southern Utah in 1961. The following year, he enrolled at the University of Wyoming where he remained until joining the Cardinals in 1967.

He served as the Cardinals' assistant trainer for four seasons from 1967-70 before his promotion to head trainer in 1971.

A native of Salt Lake City, Omohundro, his wife, Martha, and their two sons, John (17) and Jim (15), and daughter Neely (10) live in Tempe, Arizona.

JIM SHEARER

▲ Assistant Trainer

Jim Shearer enters his 18th year with the Cardinals, assisting in all aspects of the training and medical areas.

A graduate of the University of Wyoming with a degree in physical education, Shearer worked in Gillette, Wyoming as the city's assistant recreation director and head trainer at Gillette High School before returning to Wyoming as a graduate assistant trainer in 1973-74. He joined the Cardinals in 1974.

Born in Worland, Wyoming, Shearer and his wife, Nelma, have a son, Christopher (12), and a daughter, Sarah (8). They reside in Tempe, Arizona.

JEFF HERNDON

▲ Assistant Trainer

Now in his sixth season on John Omohundro's Cardinal training staff, Jeff Herndon earned his master's degree in physical education from Syracuse University in 1985 after completing his undergraduate work at the University of Missouri.

A native of Boone County, Missouri, the 30-year-old Herndon first worked with the Cardinals during the 1984 and '85 preseason training camps. He followed that initiation as athletic trainer at Tascosa High School in Amarillo, Texas for one year before rejoining the Cardinals in 1988.

Herndon married the former Gail Rubis during the off-season. The newlyweds reside in Gilbert, Arizona.

MARK AHLEMEIER

▲ Equipment Manager

Mark Ahlemeier enters his fifth season as the Cardinals' equipment manager after succeeding long-time (21 years) equipment manager Bill Simmons in April, 1987 following six years as the club's assistant equipment manager.

Ahlemeier, 33, was born in St. Charles, Mo. and raised in nearby Woodson Terrace. He attended Ritenour High School and Florissant Valley College in St. Louis.

An avid golfer and sports enthusiast, Ahlemeier and his wife, Patti, have one daughter, Mandy (2). They reside in Tempe, Arizona.

STEVE CHRISTENSEN

▲ Assistant Equipment Manager

Steve enters his fourth year as the Cardinals' assistant equipment manager, assisting department head Mark Ahlemeier in all phases of the team's logistical and equipment preparations.

Born in St. Cloud, Minnesota, Christensen attended Bozeman (Mont.) High School before enrolling at New Mexico State University and later Western Montana College to study art education.

After working at both schools as a student equipment manager, the 32-year-old Christensen was appointed to the equipment staff at Arizona State University as an assistant in 1982. He joined the Cardinals in June of 1988 shortly after the team's arrival in Arizona.

An avid racquetball player and runner, Steve ran in the 1984 Phoenix Marathon. He and his wife, Lauri, reside in Chandler, Arizona.

BENNY GREENBERG

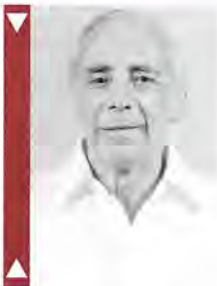

▲ Video Director

Benny Greenberg begins his 26th year of affiliation with the Cardinals in 1991 as the team's video director.

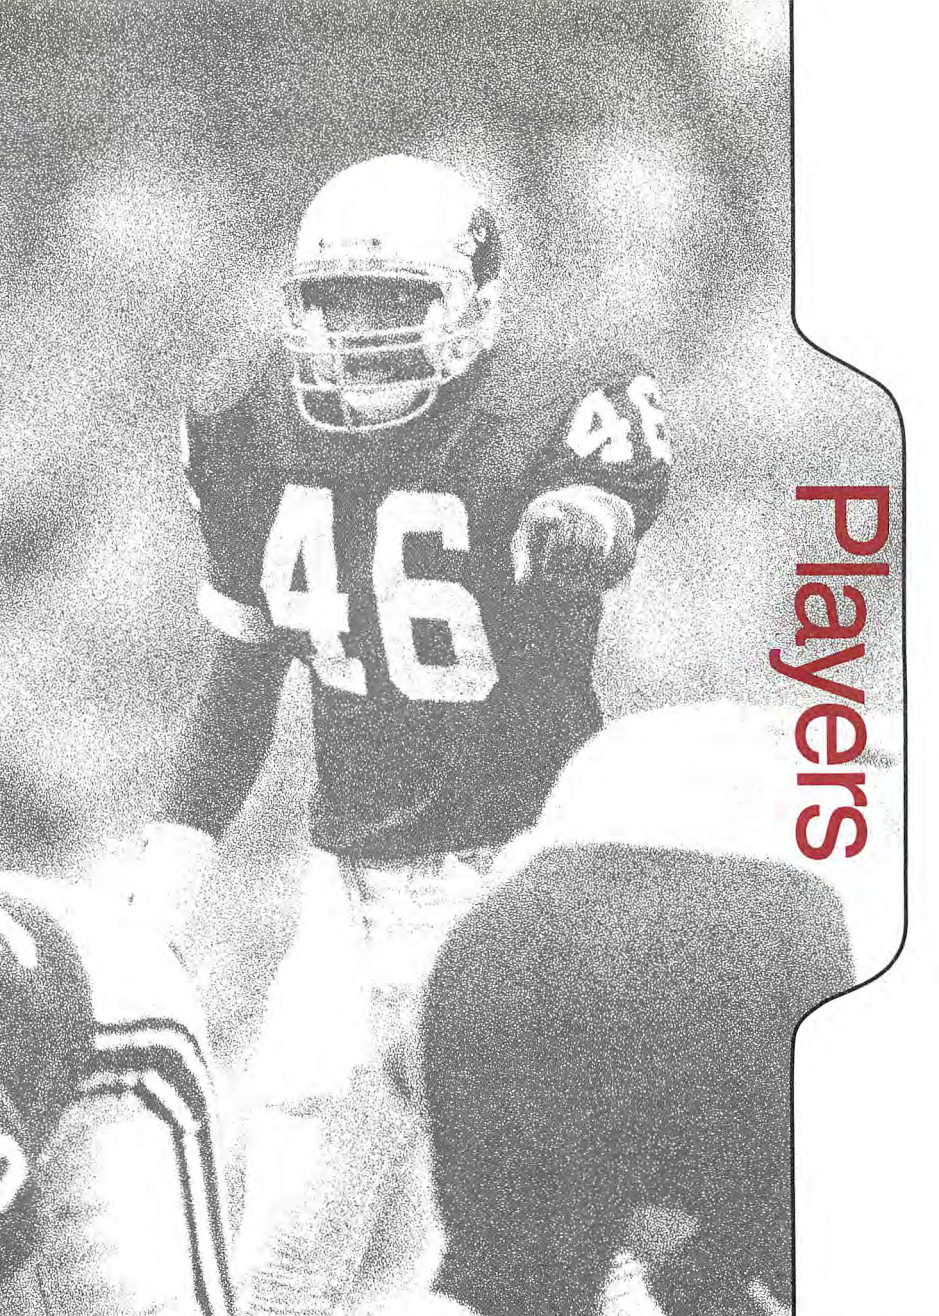

A St. Louis native who spent his entire life in the Gateway City before the Cardinals' move to Arizona in 1988, Greenberg, 65, owned and operated photography stores until six years ago in addition to his film and video duties with the Cardinals that includes videotaping games and all practices.

He also worked as a cameraman for St. Louis television stations, positions he held concurrently with part-time work with the Cardinals that began in 1966. He joined the Cards on a full-time basis in 1970.

Greenberg, who studied mechanical engineering at Washington University in St. Louis for three years in the 1940s, and his wife, Bebe, reside in Scottsdale, Arizona. They have two sons—Mark (39) and Berry (37)—and two grandchildren.

Pro Career: Impressive package of physical talents who's now knitted together solid back-to-back seasons and showed worth as fifth player selected overall and first linebacker in 1986 NFL draft ... enjoyed all-around fine 1989 season with statistical superlatives in nearly every category ... wrestled starting left linebacker job away from eight-year veteran Charlie Baker in 1987 and has started last four seasons ... has bagged 354 tackles during five campaigns with Cardinals, starting 63 of last 64 games and has yet to miss a contest in his 80 games as a Cardinal ... underwent arthroscopic surgery on left knee again for minor cartilage repair April 10, 1991 but recovered without incident. 1990: Posted 72 tackles and three quarterback sacks during season as club switched from four-three alignment to three-four scheme after four weeks (his position, however, remained as outside linebacker on left side) ... registered five or more tackles eight times in addition to six quarterback "hurries" and three passes defended ... opened season with combined 28 tackles in first four outings, including season-best 10 (eight solo) vs. Washington (Sept. 30) ... credited with seven stops vs. Chicago (Oct. 28) and came up with second interception of career vs. Buffalo (Nov. 11) ... collected five tackles and quarterback sack in 34-14 win over New England (Nov. 25) and five more hits in 20-17 victory over Indianapolis (Dec. 2) ... finished season with quarterback sacks in final two contests vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 23) and Philadelphia (Dec. 29) ... successful arthroscopic left knee surgery (May 31, 1990) during ensuing off-season. 1989: Played with new-found enthusiasm and intensity to register career-high 115 tackles ... overall play improved markedly, in particular pass-coverage abilities enough that he replaced Ken Harvey as lone linebacker in pass coverage schemes as Harvey lined up as pass rusher ... ended season with nine passes defended, good for fourth-best on team and tops among non-defensive backs ... did not start opener vs. Detroit's run-n-shoot offense, but enjoyed fine game in 34-24 win over Seattle (Sept. 17) with four tackles and pass defended ... rolled up season-best 11 stops vs. San Diego (Oct. 1) and nine plus a sack vs. L.A. Rams (Nov. 19) ... registered only two stops vs. Dallas (Nov. 12), but put Cowboys' Troy Aikman out of the game with ferocious hit ... battered San Diego for 11 tackles (Oct. 1), then added six each against Washington (Oct. 8) and Philadelphia (Oct. 15) in successive weeks. 1988: Led Phoenix with three fumble recoveries and ranked fourth on club with 57 tackles ... piled up personal-best 10 stops vs. Dallas (Sept. 12) ... set up score in 30-24 win over Tampa Bay (Sept. 18) with fumble recovery ... stacked up five solo stops and batted away two passes in 30-21 win over Washington (Sept. 25) ... posted trio of tackles on special teams vs. Dallas (Oct. 30) in 16-10 win ... recovered fumble on punt return to set up Cards' touchdown vs. Philadelphia (Nov. 27) ... shared playing time with Ken Harvey, the Cards' top pick in '88, over latter part of season. 1987: Belted out 66 tackles (57 solo) to rank fourth on club ... also pocketed seven pass defenses, one interception and one sack ... pencilled into opening lineup on 12 occasions ... rang up eight-tackle performances vs. New York Giants (Oct. 25), Los Angeles Rams (Nov. 15) and Philadelphia (Nov. 22) ... pulled in first career NFL interception vs. Atlanta (Nov. 29) to thwart scoring drive and help seal 34-21 Cardinals' win ... also stung Dallas for six stops in season opener (Sept. 13). 1986: Finished rookie season with 44 tackles and four sacks to lead all non-starting regulars on defense ... registered four stops vs. San Francisco (Nov. 9) in only start ... key fourth-quarter sack vs. Philadelphia (Nov. 2) forced punt that set up winning possession in 13-10 victory ... racked up seven tackles vs. Washington (Nov. 30) with three solo stops on kick coverage units ... piled up four tackles and two sacks vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 7) ... saw considerably more playing time as season progressed ... became third first-round draft choice among Cardinals' linebackers (E.J. Junior, 1979, Alabama; Freddie Joe Nunn, 1985, Mississippi). College/Personal: Named honorable mention all-Big Ten in 1984 ... two-year starter and '85 defensive captain with 221 career tackles at Michigan State ... played in East-West Shrine game ... born in Miami, Fla. ... all-state and all-conference honors at Anderson High School ... also starred in wrestling and as weightman in track and field ... born July 2, 1964 ... Washington ▲ Free Agent, 1989

▲ Quick Facts

- ▲ Sixty-two-yard punt in 1986 Super Bowl was a Super Bowl record since surpassed by Cincinnati's Lee Johnson (1988) by one yard.
- ▲ Uncle Leo involved in pro rodeo circuit (named Cowboy-of-the-Year in 1977).
- ▲ Currently fourth-leading active punter in NFL with 42.6-yard average, trailing only Indianapolis' Rohn Stark (44.1), N.Y. Giants' Sean Landeta (43.9), and Miami's Reggie Roby (43.2). Currently tied for 14th place on the all-time list. Another one-half yard on his average would place him in the top 10 in league history.

Pro Career: Experienced a rags to riches NFL career, not once but twice ... former free agent from Washington who travelled to Pro Bowl with New England in 1983, then again as Cardinal in 1989 after again rising from free agent status ... led NFL with 43.9-yard punting average in 1989 and topped NFC with 37.4-yard net mark last year ... enjoyed 44.6-yard gross and 37.1-yard net marks in 1983 Pro Bowl season with New England ... all-rookie pick in 1981. 1990: Enjoyed second-straight fine season with NFC-leading 37.4-yard net mark and 42.8-yard gross figure (third in conference) ... major reason for Phoenix finishing as NFC's top punt coverage team, allowing opponents just 6.3 yards per return ... accorded second-team all-NFL notice by UPI ... opened season with eye-popping 49-yard average vs. Washington (Sept. 9) ... punted just four times in 23-21 win in Philadelphia (Sept. 16) and dropped two inside-the 20-yard line, then boomed four more punts for 46.3-yard mark vs. New Orleans (Sept. 23) and six for 43.8-yard average vs. Redskins (Sept. 30) ... enjoyed outstanding back-to-back games with 45.7-yard mark on six punts vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 21), then five for season-best 50.8-yard average (42.8-yard net) at Miami (Nov. 4) along with season-long of 63 yards ... after his first punt sailed 52 yards, he endured nightmarish inclement weather conditions at Buffalo (Nov. 11) when 45 mile-per-hour gusts limited his next three punts to a combined 46 total yards ... two consecutive fourth-quarter punts went just 12 yards each and his season average dropped a full two yards per kick after the game ... rebounded for 48-yard average the following week vs. Green Bay (Nov. 18), then posted 45-yard mark on two punts in 34-14 win over New England (Nov. 25), including 43-yard net average ... kicked for 44.7-yard gross and 40.2-yard net figures in 20-17 victory over Indianapolis (Dec. 2) ... called upon for season-high seven punts and responded with 45.1-yard average and 42.4-yard net vs. Dallas (Dec. 16) ... finished fine season with 39.3-yard net figure in finale vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 29). 1989: Pleasant surprise as he rose from free agent status to earn his second Pro Bowl trip ... finished season with 43.4-yard average on 76 punts with 21 inside the 20-yard line ... named by Associated Press to second team all-NFL squad and by UPI to similar honor for NFC ... in addition to leading the league in punting average, his 37.5-yard net mark ranked second to N.Y. Giants' Sean Landeta (37.8) ... opened season in fine form with misleading 40.8-yard average, booming a 54-yarder, then forcing two Detroit fair catches on its own 10 and nine-yard lines in 16-13 victory (Sept. 10) ... called upon just once in 34-24 win over Seattle (Sept. 17) but forced fair catch inside 20-yard line ... posted 46.3-yard average on four punts in wind-swirled Giants Stadium (Sept. 24), then dropped three inside the 20 vs. Washington (Oct. 8) ... forced the dangerous Deion Sanders into two fair catches in 34-20 win over Atlanta (Oct. 22), then credited with 46.3-yard average vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 5) and 42.3-yard gross with 39.7-yard net figure in 24-20 victory over Dallas (Nov. 12) ... enjoyed outstanding day vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 26) with 44-yard average and 40.3-yard net as four of his six punts rolled to a stop inside the 20-yard line ... suffered ankle sprain running a pass route on scout team in practice, forcing back-up quarterback Tom Tupa to handle punting duties vs. L.A. Raiders (Dec. 10) ... finished remarkable season with 43.4-yard average vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 24) ... posted solid statistics in Pro Bowl contest with three punts for 49.3-yard average and long of 53 yards.

1988: Punted for Los Angeles Rams in first nine games with 39.5-yard average on 40 kicks after Dale Hatcher underwent arthroscopic knee surgery early in training camp ... also dropped 11 kicks inside the 20 with just two touchbacks ... punted season-high eight times for 39-yard average in 33-0 shutout of Atlanta (Oct. 16) ... posted season-best 43.9-yard mark on seven kicks vs. San Francisco (Oct. 16) ... released by Rams Nov. 2 when Hatcher returned ... waived by Patriots on final roster cutdown (Aug. 30) and promptly signed by L.A. (Aug. 31).

1987: Finished season with 40.1-yard average on 62 punts ... his 14 punts inside the 20-yard line ranked fourth in AFC, while his 73-yard punt was third longest in league ... enjoyed fine outing with five punts for season-high 48.6-yard average vs. Denver (Dec. 6) ... seven punts of 50 yards or better ... three games with average of 47 yards or more ... set club marks for career punts (468), punting yardage (19,922) and average (42.6).

1986: Ranked third in conference with a 42.1-yard average ... posted eye-popping 50.2-yard mark on nine punts in playoff game vs. Denver (Jan. 4) ... nailed three 60-plus-yard kicks (Miami, Dec. 22; Buffalo, Oct. 26; Denver, Jan. 4) ... also had dubious distinction of leading league by having three punts blocked, the firsts of his career.

1985: Finished season ranked third in conference and fifth in NFL with 43-yard average ... 92 kicks for 3,953 yards set club single-season standards ... rocketed 75-yarder into end zone vs. Chicago (Sept. 15), the longest in the league ... tied team record for most punts in game with 11 vs. Chicago that day ... also set team mark with 514 punting yards good for 46.7-yard average ... best average came in opener vs. Green Bay (Sept. 8) with 47.7-yard mark on four kicks ... in AFC title game win over Miami (Jan. 12) came through on clutch 49-yard punt against 11-man rush with two minutes left in game to help preserve win and send Patriots to Super Bowl.

1984: Missed half of season after surgery on left knee due to injury in third preseason game ... placed on injured reserve list (Aug. 18) for first nine games ... activated (Nov.

3) and posted 43-yard average on four kicks vs. Denver (Nov. 4) ... finished season with 48 punts for 42.1-yard average and 34.7-yard net ... gross average ranked seventh in AFC and net was good for fifth place ... tied Patriot record with 11 punts vs. Dallas (Nov. 22), including seven in first half alone. 1983: In only his third year, made trip to Pro Bowl by leading NFL in net average (37.1) ... second in gross average (44.6) ... nailed league long of 70 yards in snow vs. New Orleans (Dec. 4) ... dropped career-high 25 punts inside the 20-yard line ... had 18 punts over 50 yards and four over 60 yards, including the 70-yarder. 1982: Named to Sports Illustrated all-NFL team and was 1776 Club (Patriots' fan club) Unsung Hero ... posted 43.7-yard average on 49 punts in strike-abbreviated season.... also credited with 37.7-yard net average, still a personal single-season best ... boomed 76-yarder vs. N.Y. Jets (Sept. 19), longest in AFC and third-longest in NFL. 1981: Selected to Football Digest all-rookie team with 41.7-yard average and 33.4-yard net mark in nine games ... originally signed as free agent (May 18), waived in roster cutdown (Aug. 24), then resigned after seven weeks of regular season (Oct. 19) ... became third punter on Patriots' roster before midway point of season ... boomed NFL's longest punt of season with 75-yarder vs. Oakland (Nov. 1), then three weeks later booted 72-yarder vs. Buffalo (Nov. 22), third best in league in 1981. College/Personal: Spent first two years as collegian at Cerritos (Calif.) Junior College and averaged 40.5 yards and 42.8 yards in two years ... transferred to Washington in 1979 and posted 40.7-yard average ... boomed 71-yard punt as prep star at El Rancho High School in Pico Rivera, Calif. ... brother Gary was all-New England punter/kicker at Bridgewater (Mass.) State College three consecutive years ... born Nov. 29, 1959 ... resides in Phoenix with wife Mary and their daughter, Nicole Lauren (June 20, 1990).

Kicker ▲ 5-10 ▲ 200 ▲ Eighth Year
 Auburn ▲ Free Agent, 1987

▲ Quick Facts

▲ Converted 77 consecutive points after touchdown from 1985-87 as a Packer and Cardinal. The first 74 came as a Packer, the second-longest streak in Green Bay history behind Paul Hornung's 96 straight. Interestingly, Del Greco's streak began against the Cardinals in 1985 and ended in his first game as a Cardinal in 1987 vs. N.Y. Giants on Dec. 13.

▲ Author of five career game-winning field goals, including two as a Cardinal.

▲ Four field goals of 50 yards or more best in Cardinal history.

▲ Nailed three field goals in 1987 finale vs. Dallas, marking the first time a Cards' kicker had converted that many three-pointers since Neil O'Donoghue turned the trick against Philadelphia five years earlier on Dec. 5, 1982.

▲ Made six field goals vs. Kentucky in 1982 as Auburn's place kicker.

▲ A near-scratch handicapper in golf with aspirations of becoming a teaching professional following his football career.

Pro Career: Proven veteran kicker with estimable statistics ... will receive stiff competition in 1991 from Greg Davis, acquired from Atlanta in Plan B ... former free agent who enjoyed record-setting three-plus seasons with Green Bay ... released by Packers after brief slump midway through 1987 season before joining Cardinals ... has converted 51 of 79 field goals for Cardinals and 109 of 113 points after touchdown (PAT) for 262 points ... 51 field goals ranks third on all-time club charts, while 109 PATs is good for fifth-best total by Cardinal kickers ... has kicked four field goals over 50 yards for Cardinals, more than any other kicker in franchise history ... owns pro career field-goal accuracy mark of .656 (101-154) with 121 of 127 PATs to his credit for 524 points ... good on 35 of 53 field-goal attempts (66 percent) over past two seasons. 1990: Tallied 82 points for second consecutive season on 17 of 27 field-goal tries and 31-31 extra points ... authored stretch of seven straight field goals from weeks four through eight ... enjoyed hero status in Head Coach Joe Bugel's first win in 23-21 comeback victory in Philadelphia (Sept. 16) with field goals of 25, 50 and 42 yards, the latter with just 25 seconds left in game ... sailed pair of 28-yarders through uprights in 20-3 win over Dallas (Oct. 14), then nailed all four attempts (39, 18, 34, 45 yards) at N.Y. Giants (Oct. 21) to tie personal single-game best and extend streak to seven consecutive field goals ... saw streak end vs. Chicago (Oct. 28) as 52-yard attempt came up just short, but atoned with 44-yarder the next week in Miami (Nov. 4) ... converted kicks from 29 and 50 yards in 34-14 win over New England (Nov. 25), then hit from 32 and 39 yards out in 20-17 triumph over Indianapolis (Dec. 2) ... connected on just one of three tries in Atlanta (Dec. 9), but 37-yarder on final play of first half gave Phoenix 10-10 tie heading into locker room in 24-13 win. 1989: Connected on first three tries, then after missing a 47-yarder vs. N.Y. Giants (Sept. 24), booted next 10 straight to tie club mark set by Jim Bakken (twice—1965-66, 1975) ... finished season converting 18 of 26 (69.2 percent) field goal tries and hit 28 of 29 PATs for 82 points ... that accuracy mark of 69.2 percent was the club's second-best percentage in 15 years and fifth best in club single-season annals ... drilled field goals of 29, 23 and 33 yards in opener vs. Detroit (Sept. 10) to account for 10 of Cardinals 16 points, including game-winner from 33 yards out with just 13 seconds left in 16-13 victory ... powered through a 50-yard try vs. Atlanta (Oct. 22) for the second-longest in his career ... perfect four-of-four from 40, 25, 31 and 42 yards in 19-10 triumph over Dallas (Oct. 29), the second four-field goal day of his career (first as a Cardinal) and first by a Cardinal since Bakken turned the trick in 1975 ... converted attempts from 21 and 28 yards vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 26) but saw a hurried 47-yard try sail just wide left with six seconds left in 14-13 loss. 1988: Twelve field goals, 42 PATs, and 78 points were all club bests since Neil O'Donoghue's 23 field goals, 48 PATs, and 117 points in 1984 ... after missing first two attempts, connected on seven of next eight tries ... three field goals (47,37,23) in 30-24 triumph over Tampa Bay (Sept. 18) ... nailed career-long 51-yarder in 41-27 victory over L.A. Rams (Oct. 2) ... converted 24-yarder vs. San Francisco (Nov. 6) to bring club within 23-10, then hit game-winning PAT with three seconds on clock in 24-23 comeback victory. 1987: Signed as free agent and connected on four of five field-goal attempts, and eight of nine PATs for 20 points in just three games ... missed PAT vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 13) to break string of 77 consecutive extra points ... hit all four PATs and 28-yard FG vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 20) ... nailed three more field goals in season finale vs. Dallas (Dec. 27) ... released by Packers Nov. 7 after converting five of 10 field goals and all 11 PATs ... 74 consecutive conversions over three Packer seasons rank second in club annals behind Paul Hornung's 96 and surpassing Jan Stenerud's total of 67 ... tryouts with New England and Detroit before joining Cards. 1986: Hit 17 of 27 field goals and was perfect on all 29 PATs for team-best 80 points, padding his total to 236 points, placing him 15th on Packers' all-time scoring list ... tied club single-game record with four field goals against Chicago (Sept. 22) in Monday Night contest ... good on 12 of 14 field-goal tries inside 40 yards ... extended string of consecutive PATs to 63. 1985: Converted 19 of 26 field-goal attempts and 38 of 40 PATs for career-best 95 points, including solid 14 of 16 from inside 40 yards ... enjoyed memorable game vs. Detroit (Dec. 15) when he made all four field goals attempted, including 27-yarder as time expired in 26-23 Green Bay win ... also responded with game-winner on 22-yarder with seven seconds left in 20-17 victory over Minnesota (Oct. 13). 1984: Became Packers' kicker in game eight (replacing Eddie Garcia) after being contacted at Auburn campus where he was completing work on degree in business transportation ... hit first field goal as professional vs. Seattle (Oct. 2) and went

Running Back ▲ 6-3 ▲ 220 ▲ Second Year
San Jose State ▲ Seventh Round, 1990 (69th overall)

▲ Quick Facts

- ▲ The "find" of the 1990 NFL draft when he earned a Pro Bowl berth after selection by Cards in seventh round.
- ▲ As a junior at SJSU, joined basketball team as walk-on and scored 23 points and grabbed 12 rebounds against national powerhouse Nevada-Las Vegas in 1989.
- ▲ Became first player in NCAA history to rush for more than 1,200 yards (1,219) and catch more than 60 passes in a season (61) as junior.

Pro Career: Consensus all-rookie pick who defied odds as seventh-round draft pick to climax a sensational rookie season with voting to the NFC

Pro Bowl roster ... combines size, deceptive speed and ability as pass receiver out of backfield to emerge as one of the league's bright stars of the future ... though he missed two full games and three quarters of another due to an ankle sprain, still collected 926 yards rushing and 241 receiving (25 receptions) to gain NFL rookie-of-the-year honors by both the Washington, D.C. Touchdown Club and NFL Players Association ... though he finished second to Dallas Cowboys' Emmitt Smith (937 yards) among rookie rushers, Johnson bettered Smith in overall yardage (1,167-1,165) and rushing average (4.0-3.9) ... led NFC with 185 rushing attempts for 801 yards through 11 weeks before spraining right ankle vs. Green Bay (Nov. 18) ... with top draft pick Anthony Thompson's late arrival at training camp (protracted contract negotiations), stepped into starting lineup during preseason, then started season opener in RFK Stadium and led club in both rushing (54 yards) and receiving (99 yards) ... those 99 yards through the air were most by Cardinal running back since 1984 (Otis Anderson, 12-124 vs. Washington, Dec. 16) ... powered to 88 yards on 22 attempts in 23-21 victory over Philadelphia (Sept. 16), including 22-yard sprint to corner of end zone for first Phoenix touchdown of season and first points of Joe Bugel era ... collected 68 yards on 22 tries at New Orleans (Sept. 23) with 49 yards in first half, then sailed to 91 first-half yards vs. Washington (Sept. 30), but held to just two yards by Redskins in second half ... recorded first 100-yard rushing game by Cardinal in two years with 19 attempts for 120 yards in 20-3 victory over Dallas (Oct. 14) ... plowed to 108 yards on 30 carries the next week in Giants Stadium (Oct. 21), the first 100-yard rushing game allowed by the N.Y. defense in 20 contests, while his 30 rushing attempts were most by Cardinal since 1982 (Otis Anderson, 30-110 vs. Dallas, Dec. 26) ... ran inside and out for 74 yards vs. Chicago (Oct. 28), including 21-yard scoring sprint on fourth and one play ... ran into stiff resistance the next two weeks with

Strong Safety ▲ 6-2 ▲ 215 ▲ Fifth Year

Southern California ▲ Second Round, (34th overall), 1987

▲ Quick Facts

- ▲ Football was his no. 3 sport entering his senior year at Fresno, California's Edison High School, taking a back seat to basketball (13.5-point scoring average at point guard) and baseball (.465 batting average as an outfielder).
- ▲ Latest in long line of all-America Southern California safeties that includes Ronnie Lott, Dennis Thurman, Charles Phillips, Artimus Parker, and Mike Battle.
- ▲ Turned "hat trick" in 1988 on special teams by deflecting punt, field goal, and point after touchdown.

Pro Career: Emerged from shadow of Leonard

Smith (traded to Buffalo) after serving three-game apprenticeship as rookie in 1987 to earn Pro Bowl acclaim in 1989 and is now regarded as one of top safeties in game today ... became only third Cardinal defensive back since 1970 to earn Pro Bowl recognition (current general manager Larry Wilson, 1962-63, '65-'70 and Roger Wehrli, 1970-71, '74-77, '79) ... has collected 402 tackles and 13 interceptions in past three seasons as starter at strong safety ... characterized by sure tackling, intelligence and toughness ... seven interceptions in 1989 are most by Cardinal in six years ... also assumed signal-calling duties on defense with departure of E.J. Junior in 1989. 1990: Led team for third consecutive season in tackles with 132 (31 assists) and interceptions with four ... registered seven or more stops in 12 games and hit double figures four times ... also swatted away eight passes ... opened season with seven stops at Washington (Sept. 9) ... piled up five solo tackles and spectacular diving interception at Philadelphia (Dec. 16), returning ball 38 yards to set up score for 14-14 tie in third quarter en route to Cards 23-21 comeback win ... managed seven stops and another interception in New Orleans (Sept. 23), then five tackles and six assists vs. Washington (Sept. 30) ... rolled up team-high 12 solo stops vs. Chicago (Oct. 28), then followed with 11 tackles overall at Miami (Nov. 4) ... collected third interception of season vs. Green Bay (Nov. 18) ... rocked Colts for nine stops in 20-17 Phoenix win (Dec. 2), then credited with seven solo tackles in 24-13 win over Atlanta (Dec. 9) ... saw busy afternoon with nine solos and forced fumble and recovery in Dallas (Dec. 16), then followed with season-high 15 tackles vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 23) ... rounded out season with seven stops and two passes defended vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 29). 1989: Stole the show in just his second season as starter ... led club in tackles for second consecutive year with 155 (102 solo), gathered in seven interceptions, and batted away 16 passes, an impressive figure for a player at his position ... his 170 return yardage total with those thefts led the conference, ranks fifth in team annals and was most by Cardinal since Norm Thompson's 190 on six steals in 1974 ... the seven interceptions were most since Lionel Washington corralled eight in 1983 ... made two interceptions in back-to-back games vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 5) and Dallas (Nov. 12) ... led club with eight stops in 16-13 opening-day win over Detroit (Sept. 10) ... cruised to 12 tackles vs. N.Y. Giants (Sept. 24), then suffered ankle injury vs. San Diego (Oct. 1) that hampered his production somewhat ... in games 7-10, however, kicked into high gear with nine solo stops, three passes defended and key fumble recovery that set up Cards' touchdown in 34-20 win over Atlanta; six tackles, interception and another trio of passes defended in 19-10 win over Dallas (Oct. 29); then 10 solo hits and two thefts vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 5) and two more steals in 24-20 win over the Cowboys (Nov. 12) ... his performance in that second Dallas contest earned him NFC defensive player-of-the-week honors as he returned one of the interceptions 53 yards for a touchdown ... posted incredible 15 solo tackles vs. Washington (Dec. 3) as he (16 total stops) and linebacker Ken Harvey (14 solos) accounted for nearly half (30) of the tackles on Redskins' offensive plays (66) ... chalked up 10 tackles vs. Raiders (Dec. 10) and did fine job at run support as L.A. averaged just 4.5 yards-per-attempt ... and though Bo Jackson gained 114 yards, nearly half came on a 50-yard sprint ... combined for 13 tackles in final two games. 1988: Generated impressive campaign with team-best 115 tackles, including seven or more on nine occasions ... after appearing in just three games the previous year, posted all-pro-like numbers in what could be considered his rookie season with 101 solo stops, 14 assists, 2 quarterback sacks, 4 forced fumbles, 1 fumble recovery, 2 interceptions, and 8 passes defended ... those totals exceeded Smith's team-high totals (109 stops) of a year earlier ... started at free safety vs. Dallas (Sept. 12) and Tampa Bay (Sept. 18) when Lonnie Young temporarily replaced Cedric Mack at cornerback ... piled up combined 16 tackles the next two weeks as starter at strong safety... key performer with 11 tackles, quarterback sack, and forced fumble in 30-21 win over Washington (Oct. 16), then corralled 11 more in 16-10 win over Dallas (Oct. 31) and 11 overall in 24-23 comeback against San Francisco (Nov. 6) ... career and season-best 12 solo stops vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 4), including sack and forced fumble ... also excelled on special teams, blocking field goal and point after touchdown and deflecting punt ... showed caliber as player and individual when, despite 44-7 deficit and game in waning moments, blocked point after touchdown vs. N.Y. FREDDIE JOE NUNN 50

Outside Linebacker ▲ 6-4 ▲ 250 ▲ Sixth Year
Mississippi ▲ First Round (18th overall), 1985

▲ Quick Facts

- ▲ Bulkied from 228 to 255 pounds in 1987 which he put to good use in leading the Cardinals in sacks (11 in 1987, 14 in '88) for two consecutive seasons.
- ▲ Returns to linebacker, his initial professional position, from defensive end this season. Jersey number change from 78 to 50 accompanies the switch. Cards transitioned Nunn to defensive end in 1987, his college position where he was named a first team all-America at Mississippi.
- ▲ Earned 1985 UPI all-rookie team honors after amassing 84 tackles, 3 sacks, and 2 fumble recoveries in 16 starts at linebacker.
- ▲ Gained 1,246 yards and scored 20 touchdowns as senior running back at Nanih Waiya High School, Noxubee, Miss.
- ▲ Cousin, Michael Nunn, is former IBF middleweight title-holder.

Pro Career: One of the NFL's top pass rushers ... returns to outside linebacker in 1991 after four seasons at defensive end ... originally played outside linebacker in first two professional seasons (1985-86), then moved to defensive end in 1987, the position where he earned all-America honors at Mississippi during NCAA days ... in just 56 games at defensive end from 1987-90, bagged 39 sacks ... although he beefed up from 228 pounds as outside linebacker to 255 in 1987, maintained exceptional speed for size ... other than during his four-game substance-abuse suspension in 1989, has not missed a starting assignment in his entire 72-game NFL career. 1990: Rebounded from sub-par 1989 season to post 47 tackles, 9 quarterback sacks, and a team-best 5 forced fumbles, while his 16 quarterback "hurries" ranked second on club to Ken Harvey (24) ... registered sacks in each of first two contests, including key hit on Randall Cunningham along with forced fumble in Cardinals' 23-21 victory in Philadelphia (Sept. 16) ... credited with four tackles apiece at New Orleans (Sept. 23) and vs. Washington (Sept. 30), then menaced Dallas with sack of Troy Aikman and forced fumble in fourth quarter of Cardinals' 20-3 victory ... patched together four-game stretch (games nine-12) with a combined four and one-half sacks and 10 tackles ... included in stretch were five stops and pair of sacks in 20-17 triumph over Indianapolis (Dec. 2) ... notched season-best six tackles at Dallas (Dec. 16) along with forced fumble and recovery ... registered three solo hits with two tackles for loss vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 23), then finished season with three tackles and trio of quarterback "hurries" vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 29). 1989: Battled through four-game substance-abuse suspension by league to contribute 34 tackles, 5 quarterback sacks and 1 fumble recovery in 12 games ... received 30-day suspension effective Sept. 26 for violation of league's substance abuse policy ... reinstated Oct. 24 ... opened season in fine form with six solo stops in 16-13 win over Detroit (Sept. 10)... credited with season-high seven combined tackles vs. N.Y. Giants (Sept. 24), then added five solo stops and sack in return match with Giants (Nov. 5), including fumble recovery that led to Cardinals' field goal in third quarter... rang up pair of sacks vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 26) along with four solo tackles ... showcased his talents with four tackles and sack in each of games against L.A. Raiders (Dec. 10) and Denver (Dec. 16). 1988: Stamped himself as one of the NFL's premier pass-rushing talents with 14 sacks, a total surpassed only by Philadelphia all-pro Reggie White (16.5) among NFL linemen ... that mark also was most by a Cardinal since Curtis Greer's 14 (1984) and just two shy of Greer's team record of 16 (1983) ... menaced opposing quarterbacks as effectively as any pass rusher in the league ... led Cards in sacks, quarterback hurries (27), and played every down from scrimmage on defense ... named all-pro honorable mention by Associated Press and second team all-NFC by UPI ... combined with Rod Saddler to force Rams' Jim Everett into fumble that Saddler returned 16 yards for touchdown in 41-27 win over previously unbeaten L.A. Rams (Oct. 2) ... also added five solo stops, a sack, and batted down a pass on the day ... rolled Pittsburgh for five solo stops and a pair of sacks in 31-14 Phoenix win (Oct. 9) ... stripped Washington quarterback Mark Rypien of ball that Cards' Cedric Mack returned for 47-yard touchdown, sealing 30-21 victory over Redskins (Oct. 16) ... throttled Dallas' Steve Pelluer for three sacks in 16-10 win over Cowboys (Oct. 30), and teamed with Anthony Bell to successfully limit Pro Bowler Herschel Walker to his lowest rushing total at that point in the season (87 yards) after Walker sailed to 147 earlier in the year against Phoenix ... after four-game drought, chalked up pair of sacks vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 10) ... also played well on special teams, particularly as rush man on punt return and narrowly missed blocking a few punts. 1987: Top outing of year came against New York Giants (Oct. 25), ripping off 10 tackles and two sacks in 30-7 loss ... also pummeled Tampa Bay for five solo stops and three sacks (Dec. 20) ... other noticeable performances were five-tackle, two and one-half-sack day at Philadelphia (Nov. 22) and a four tackle, one and one-half-sack effort vs. Giants (Dec. 13) ... collected 46 tackles overall. 1986: Forty-eight tackles at outside linebacker ranked seventh on club while seven sacks were second to Al Baker's 10 ... erupted for two first-half sacks in Philadelphia (Dec. 7) and New Orleans (Nov. 16) games ... also notched two pass defenses and a fumble recovery at N.Y. Giants (Dec. 14). 1985: Began first preseason game after just four days in training camp ... started all 16 games ... breezed to team-leading 38 tackles after first five games ... rolled up six or more stops on 10 occasions ... strung together three consecutive weeks with sacks vs. Tampa Bay (Oct. 10), Philadelphia (Oct. 17), and N.Y. Giants (Oct. 24) ... stacked up eight tackles in NFL debut in season-opening 27-24 overtime win vs. Cleveland (Sept. 9). College/Personal: First team all-America, first team all-Southeastern Conference, and three-time S.E.C. defensive player-of-the-week as senior at Ole Miss ... played in Senior Bowl and was defensive most valuable player in Hula Bowl ... born April 9, 1962 in Noxubee, Miss ... lettered in football, basketball, baseball, and track in high school ... wife's name is Vikki.

TOOTIE ROBBINS

Tackle ▲ 6-5 ▲ 310 ▲ Tenth Year

East Carolina ▲ Fourth Round (90th overall), 1982

▲ Quick Facts

- ▲ Son of an eastern North Carolina sharecropper who would be in fields by 7 a.m. as youngster, then after harvesting tobacco, would bathe and promptly head for nightly football practice.
- ▲ Earned second team all-America honors as senior at East Carolina, the highest national recognition by a football player in school history.
- ▲ Impressive showing in 1982 rookie training camp prompted veteran Dan Dierdorf's move to center.

Pro Career: Presents imposing figure at 6-5 and 322 pounds ... enjoyed outstanding 1982 rookie season with several all-rookie honors, but prior hamstring problems and host of other injuries slowed his development ... played every down in 14 games last year in his most durable performance since 1984 ... when able to perform at 100 percent efficiency, can dominate his man and complement Pro Bowler Luis Sharpe to give Cardinals impressive set of bookend tackles. 1990: Produced yeoman effort when he battled through numerous nagging injuries to miss just one practice and part of another during entire season ... lined up for every down from scrimmage in first 10 games ... missed some action vs. New England (Nov. 25) with ankle sprain, but recovered quickly ... consistency and availability was important aspect of Cardinals' renewed success in ground attack. 1989: Started all nine games he played in, but once again hindered by injury bug ... placed on injured reserve after suffering twisted knee in season opener in Detroit (Sept. 10) ... returned to starting lineup vs. Dallas (Oct. 29) after sitting out required six games, then suffered ligament sprain in right elbow vs. L.A. Raiders (Dec. 10) in second quarter and sat out entire second half and following game vs. Denver (Dec. 16) ... returned to start in season finale at Philadelphia (Dec. 24). 1988: Played every down in nine contests and all but a handful in four others in his healthiest campaign since 1984 ... missed just six plays despite sprained right ankle vs. Washington (Oct. 16) ... played through painful rib contusion in 24-17 victory over N.Y. Giants (Nov. 13) ... suffered groin pull vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 10) ... missed final game of season on injured reserve with left shoulder injury that required off-season surgery to repair minor rotator cuff tear ... also had right ankle "scoped" to alleviate bone spur condition. 1987: Drew starting assignment at tackle in 14 games, providing Cardinals with experience and savvy up front ... missed second half vs. Dallas (Sept. 13) with concussion but played nearly every down the duration of the season. 1986: Re-signed with club after start of season and activated Sept. 12 ... played in 12 games and started last five at right tackle ... twisted ankle prevented play weeks nine and 10 ... playing time and performance level increased as he rounded into shape through latter part of season. 1985: Recurrent hamstring injury kept him out of four games but started 11 of 12 ... answered bell in first eight contests but hamstring pull in week nine limited playing time rest of season. 1984: Started all 16 games to finish with streak of 25 consecutive starts over two seasons ... improved physique from previous two years that paid off in perhaps best year as pro. 1983: Shook off nagging hamstring problems to start last nine games and regain form of rookie season ... progressed well throughout year and began to realize potential. 1982: One of biggest bonuses of 1982 draft ... started all nine contests and joined fellow rookie tackle Luis Sharpe with all-rookie mention by Pro Football Weekly, Football Digest, and the PFWA ... shared game most valuable player honors with Sharpe vs. Atlanta (Nov. 28) when St. Louis amassed 203 yards rushing in 23-20 win. College/Personal: Earned second-team all-America honors as senior at East Carolina, highest national recognition by football player in school history ... played in Blue-Gray Game and Japan Bowl after senior season ... won team blocking award after junior year ... two-way starter at Bertie County High School in native Windsor, N.C. ... James "Tootie" Robbins was all-North Carolina and all-America offensive tackle during prep career ... born June 2, 1958 ... active in United Way ... he and wife, Shaneeta, reside in Phoenix with their son, Barret Lackland (Jan. 27, 1990).

Quarterback ▲ 6-1 ▲ 210 ▲ Third Year

Washington State ▲ First Round (Supplemental Draft), 1989

▲ Quick Facts

- ▲ Father, Lynn, who died in July, 1988, was assistant athletic director at Washington State University, while mother, Rosie, was executive director of the Pullman (Wash.) Chamber of Commerce and former marketing/promotions director of the W.S.U. athletic department.
- ▲ Older brother, Todd, and parents wanted symmetry in sons' names, so the name Timm—with two "m's"—surfaced instead of Timothy.
- ▲ Montana state javelin champion in high school with a personal best of 231 feet (77 yards).
- ▲ Father 'baited' him into going to church by diagramming plays on church program during services.
- ▲ After sub-par sophomore season at W.S.U., wanted to switch to defense after tossing 24 interceptions. Returned as junior to throw 24 touchdowns and finish seventh in Heisman Trophy balloting.

Pro Career: Showed flashes of excitement and promise in brief action as rookie in 1989, then progressed remarkably last year as starter ... 3,098 yards passing in 1990 was bettered by only three NFC passers—L.A. Rams' Jim Everett (3,989), San Francisco's Joe Montana (3,944), and Philadelphia's Randall Cunningham (3,466) ... also compiled 470 yards rushing, second only to Cunningham (942) among league quarterbacks ... 1990: Showed lack of experience early in season but matured rapidly midway through campaign ... over the season's final eight weeks, only Philadelphia's Randall Cunningham (15) and Washington's Mark Rypien (12) threw more touchdown passes than Rosenbach (11) in the NFC ... posted mid-season interception-less streaks of 101 and 96 pass attempts after suffering seven interceptions in season's first four games ... became first Cardinal quarterback to avoid interception in three consecutive games (weeks six-eight) since Neil Lomax enjoyed a four-game stretch in 1986 (weeks six-nine) ... mobility allowed Cardinal offensive line to allow just 43 quarterback sacks, a 13-sack improvement from 1989 and the best protection numbers since 1979 (39 sacks) ... threaded 237 of 437 passes for 3,098 yards and 16 touchdowns ... Rosenbach and Seattle's Dave Krieg were only NFL quarterbacks to take every snap from scrimmage in 1990 ... progress evident in quarterback rating improvement from weeks one to seven—29.6, 35.4, 47.4, 49.0, 56.7, 60.5, 68.5, then a season-end mark of 72.8 ... connected on 20 of 29 attempts for 228 yards in season opener in R.F.K. Stadium vs. Redskins (Sept. 9) but suffered four interceptions, three of which bounced off his receivers' hands ... brought Cards back from 14-0 deficit to thread 11 of 19 passes for 116 yards in 23-21 come-from-behind win at Philadelphia (Sept. 16), the first pro victory for both Rosenbach and first-year Head Coach Joe Bugel ... out-rushed Eagle quarterback Randall Cunningham in the game (50-34 yards) ... connected on 19 of 27 attempts for 171 yards for season-best 70.4 percent completion mark in first interception and sack-free game by Cardinal quarterback since 1984 (Neil Lomax, Sept. 30 vs. Miami) ... completed 18 of 30 attempts for first 250-plus-yard passing day as professional (256) vs. Chicago (Oct. 28) along with pair of touchdown passes ... uncorked impressive arsenal vs. Green Bay (Nov. 18) with 285 yards and season-best three touchdown passes on 17 of 30 marksmanship ... also rushed six times for 47 yards vs. Bears ... completed 15 of 28 attempts for 188 yards in 34-14 win over New England (Nov. 25) but made mark with rushing touchdowns from two and six yards, the first Cardinal quarterback to rush for a pair of touchdowns since Neil Lomax vs. San Diego Nov. 20, 1983 ... hit on 12 of 26 attempts for 184 yards in 20-17 win over Indianapolis (Dec. 2) and no interceptions for fifth time in season ... 227 yards passing on 15-of-29 day in 24-13 triumph in Atlanta (Dec. 9) as well as gaining 38 yards on eight rushing attempts ... endured frustrating day with three interceptions at Dallas (Dec. 16) but came back to generate career-best numbers the next week vs. N.Y. ▲ Quick Facts

- ▲ Earned Pro Bowl invitations after 1987-88-89 seasons after being voted alternate in both 1983 and '84.
- ▲ Born in Havana, Cuba. At age of six, his family moved to Detroit where his father worked in the auto industry.
- ▲ Fluent in two languages, he occasionally does interviews with Spanish radio stations in Phoenix and many other NFL cities.
- ▲ Worked in production with local Phoenix television station (KTVK-TV, ABC) during 1990 off-season.

Pro Career: Thoroughbred lineman is regarded as one of the NFL's best pass blockers ... great combination of strength, foot quickness, and intelligence ... three-time Pro Bowler (1987-89) after being a two-time alternate earlier in career (1983-84) ... played 44 games during 16-month stretch from 1984-85 due to signing with USFL ... after 16 games as Cardinal in 1984, signed with USFL's Memphis Showboats in spring of 1985 ... played 12 games in Memphis, then returned to Cardinals in time to start all 16 NFL contests in the fall of 1985 ... started 110 consecutive games dating back to 1982 rookie season until knee injury sidelined him for two games in 1989. 1990: Anchored talented offensive line that yielded fewest quarterback sacks (43) in 11 seasons and opened holes for rookie Johnny Johnson to earn Pro Bowl status ... honored as second team all-NFL by Associated Press ... played every down in 10 games, including all but seven snaps in first 14 contests ... played through sprained knee in 23-21 win over Philadelphia (Sept. 16), then after not practicing all week answered the bell for entire game in New Orleans (Sept. 23) ... caught first touchdown pass from quarterback Timm Rosenbach on tackle-eligible play at N.Y. Giants (Oct. 21) ... pulled hamstring vs. Giants but still played all but one down the next week vs. Chicago (Oct. 28) ... ankle injury in return game vs. Giants relegated him to bench in fourth quarter but he still played from opening whistle to final gun in finale vs. Eagles (Dec. 29). 1989: Voted to third straight Pro Bowl ... missed training camp due to contract negotiation but opened season at his usual left tackle post ... started first nine games until knee injury vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 5) ... missed two contests but returned against Tampa Bay (Nov. 26) for final five outings. 1988: Voted offensive team captain for second consecutive year ... besides a trip to the Pro Bowl, also earned all-pro second team notice by Associated Press and first team all-NFC by United Press International ... performed well against Lawrence Taylor in both contests with N.Y. Giants and played admirably vs. Washington (Oct. 16), limiting Dexter Manley to two tackles and one sack ... fine play was major reason for Cards' early-season success and quarterback Neil Lomax being sacked just 15 times in first six games. 1987: Voted offensive team captain by teammates prior to season ... besides Pro Bowl honor, also gained all-NFC second team notice by United Press International ... perhaps two best performances of season against NFL heavyweights Manley of Washington (Dec. 6) and Taylor of New York Giants (Oct. 25). 1986: With full off-season of rest, regained past form in 1986 ... consistently warded the better defensive linemen in NFL ... extended his consecutive starting streak to 73 games at season's end, longest string on Cardinal club. 1985: After playing all 16 games with Cardinals in 1984, signed with Memphis of USFL in spring of 1985 ... played in 12 games with Showboats then returned to start all 16 games for St. Louis ... mental and physical exhaustion took its toll as he failed to perform with same toughness and finesse exhibited in previous seasons ... ran string of consecutive starts to 57. 1984: Sixteen-game starter and Pro Bowl alternate in outstanding season ... stellar play at left tackle was important factor in Cardinals' high-powered passing attack that saw St. Louis yield just 49 sacks ... repelled some of finest pass rushers in league ... near-flawless protection of Pro Bowl quarterback Neil Lomax who led NFC with club-record 4,614 yards passing. 1983: Tabbed Pro Bowl alternate in second season at left tackle. 1982: Cardinals' first-round pick in 1982 NFL draft ... earned NFL all-rookie team and team co-most valuable player (with Benny Perrin) awards ... fulfilled all expectations with outstanding year ... selected to all-rookie squads by Pro Football Weekly, Pro Football Digest, and the PFWA along with fellow rookie tackle Tootie Robbins ... shared game most valuable player honors with Robbins in 23-20 win over Atlanta (Nov. 28) ... first tackle selected in draft. College/Personal: All-America at UCLA ... played guard and center positions as three-year starter ... received Bruins' rookie-of-the-year award as freshman ... second-team all-Pac-10 Conference as sophomore ... earned honorable mention all-America as junior ... named team's most valuable player as senior and appeared in 1981 Hula Bowl and Olympia Gold Bowl ... attended Detroit's Southwestern High School where he played football and basketball ... earned academic all-America honors at UCLA ... degree in political science ... born June 16, 1960 in Havana, Cuba ... he and wife, Kathi, have two daughters, Leah (Feb. 1, 1984) and Rebekah Alicia (Dec. 4, 1987).

Guard ▲ 6-3 ▲ 290 ▲ Seventh Year

Louisiana State ▲ Third Round (72nd overall), 1985

▲ Quick Facts

- ▲ Earned UPI all-rookie honors at right tackle in 1985.
- ▲ Moved to guard in 1987 where his current dimensions (6-2, 290) are better suited.
- ▲ Dropped from 295 to 260 pounds in 1984 when he won several all-America honors at Louisiana State.
- ▲ Enjoyed bit part with former teammate David Galloway in movie "Neon Empire" filmed in Florence, Arizona during the 1988 off-season. Starring Gary Busey, the film is about a mafia invasion of Las Vegas. It aired on cable television two years ago.

Pro Career: Durable six-year starter whose savvy and intensity in the trenches go unmatched among his teammates ... bellwether has started last 65 games at right guard after filling in at both guard and tackle ... all-rookie pick as tackle in 1985 ... has performed solidly at guard since ... overcomes lack of textbook size with an irrepressible and resolute approach to the game. 1990: Played every snap in 15 games and missed just three downs all season ... adjusted well playing alongside new center Bill Lewis ... prominent ingredient in success of rookie Pro Bowl running back Johnny Johnson and fact that Phoenix offensive line improved quarterback sack/yardage numbers by 13/94 yards over previous season. 1989: Only offensive player to start all 16 games and one of only three overall (Smith, strong safety Tim McDonald, linebacker Ken Harvey were the others) ... saw both Tootie Robbins and rookie Joe Wolf start on his right side at tackle while Derek Kennard and Kani Kauahi opened at center on his left flank. 1988: Started every game for second consecutive year at right guard ... played every down in nine contests and was integral cog in continued fine play of Phoenix offense ... suffered knee sprain vs. Dallas (Oct. 31), then aggravated it the next week vs. San Francisco but did not miss a play in either victory. 1987: Stepped into veteran Joe Bostic's right guard spot during training camp when Bostic signed late ... started entire season with solid results ... provided steady influence between injury-ridden Robbins at tackle and new center Kennard. 1986: Started all five preseason games and first 11 games of regular season at right tackle before ankle injury limited him to only two starts in last five contests ... started last two games of season at right guard when Bostic was sidelined with injury ... playing time on field goal and point-after-touchdown units last part of season ... worked in practice at guard periodically. 1985: Received starting nod five of last eight contests at right tackle for injured Robbins (hamstring) ... in NFL debut vs. Dallas (Nov. 4), faced national television audience, home sellout, and Ed "Too Tall" Jones ... survived challenge in 21-10 Cardinals' win on Monday night ... earned UPI all-rookie honors though playing time was limited. College/Personal: Played in Hula Bowl ... received scattered all-America mention as freshman, withstood adversity in 1982 and '83, then became "blue-chip" success story as senior at L.S.U. in 1984 ... born Jan. 1, 1963 in New York City ... attended A.L. Brown High School in hometown of Kannapolis, N.C ... exceptional prep athlete in football and wrestling ... active in Junior Chamber of Commerce ... he and wife, Felicia, reside in Phoenix with sons, Quentin (Sept. 27, 1985) and Justin (March 22, 1990).

Quarterback/Punter ▲ 6-5 ▲ 215 ▲ Fourth Year
Ohio State ▲ Third Round (68th overall), 1988

▲ Quick Facts

- ▲ Led nation with 47-yard punting average as Ohio State senior in 1987 and finished collegiate career as second-leading punter in NCAA history.
- ▲ Talented collegiate punter. Nearly one-third (70) of 214 career punts landed inside the 20 yard line.
- ▲ While at Ohio State, was member of intramural basketball championship team that included five players who are now in the NFL: Keith Byars (Philadelphia), Cris Carter (Minnesota), Jamie Holland (L.A. Raiders), Pepper Johnson (N.Y. Giants), and William White (Detroit).

Pro Career: Strikes an impressive figure at 6-5, 215

... has played quarterback in just seven games in two seasons (1988-two, 1989-five) as Timm Rosenbach took every snap from center last year ... in first NFL start, had unfortunate distinction of tossing six interceptions vs. Philadelphia Oct. 15, 1989, then redeemed himself roughly one month later with pair of scoring strikes in 24-20 comeback win over Dallas (Nov. 12). 1990: Played in 15 games as holder for field goals and points after touchdown but watched Rosenbach take all 1,001 snaps from scrimmage ... in preseason action, connected on first 10 pass attempts vs. L.A. Rams (Aug. 25), finishing game 13-19 for 127 yards ... also punted once for 52 yards vs. Chicago (Aug. 18). 1989: Experienced roller-coaster performances with similar results in first year of extensive activity ... completed 65 of 134 attempts (48.5 percent) for 973 yards and three touchdowns but also credited with nine interceptions ... six of those picks came against Philadelphia (Oct. 15) as he was thrust into action when starter Gary Hogeboom's sore elbow did not heal after injury vs. Washington (Oct. 8) ... although Phoenix held a 5-0 halftime lead, Tupa threw two interceptions in the first half, four in the second, and completed just 16 of 41 attempts for 266 yards vs. Eagles ... redeemed himself admirably with storybook performance vs. Dallas (Nov. 12) ... connected with Ernie Jones for touchdown passes of 38 and 72 yards, the latter with just 58 seconds left in game, as he twice brought Cardinals back with furious fourth-quarter charges in thrilling 24-20 win ... relieved Hogeboom in second half vs. L.A. Rams (Nov. 19) to connect on seven of 12 attempts for 114 yards, one that Don Holmes turned into a 77-yard touchdown sprint, the Cardinals' longest play of the season ... named starter by interim Head Coach Hank Kuhlmann vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 26) and completed 17 of 38 pass attempts for 207 yards ... entered game vs. Washington (Dec. 3) midway through second quarter when Hogeboom suffered dislocated finger and Tupa threaded his first four passes in 57-yard scoring drive to tie game at 10-10... connected on just six of next 16 attempts for 79 yards in second half ... completed 17-yarder to Earl Ferrell in season finale vs.

Philadelphia (Dec. 24) ... rushed 15 times for 75 yards, including four over 11 yards ... also handled punting chores vs. L.A. Raiders (Dec. 10) when Pro Bowler Rich Camarillo suffered ankle injury during practice earlier in the week, posting 46.7-yard average on six punts with 39.8-yard net, long of 51 yards, and two dropped inside the 20-yard line. 1988: Saw action in just two contests ... connected on two of three pass attempts for 37 yards vs. Houston (Nov. 20), including 22-yarder to fellow rookie Ernie Jones ... again threaded two of three attempts vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 5) for 12 yards ... sacked once in that contest ... relegated to inactive list once ... worked nominally as punter during first training camp but gave way to Greg Horne. College/Personal: Started at quarterback for Ohio State as senior, completing 134 of 242 passes (55.4 percent) for 1,786 yards and 12 touchdowns ... led nation with eye-popping 44.1-yard net average as freshman punter ... quarterbacked Brecksville, Ohio High School to state championship as senior ... also averaged 20.8 points and 12 rebounds for prep basketball team ... pitcher and shortstop in baseball as well ... born Feb. 6, 1966 ... single ... resides in Tempe, Arizona.

UCLA ▲ Waivers, 1989

▲ Quick Facts

- ▲ Of his 14 interceptions at UCLA, he returned three for touchdowns (21, 65, 50 yards) that counted, two others that didn't (nullified by penalties).
- ▲ Unique distinction in 1990 of scoring twice on interceptions—the first from 21 yards on a lateral vs. Indianapolis (Dec. 2), the second with a 47-yard return of his first professional theft the following week at Atlanta (Dec. 9).

Pro Career: Talented swingman can play both safety and cornerback in addition to outstanding work on special teams ... continued improvement through two seasons with Cardinals places him in position to compete for starting spot in defensive backfield in 1991. 1990: Collected 22 tackles, batted away three passes, and scored a pair of touchdowns on interceptions as extra defensive back, the first on a lateral play, the second on 47-yard return ... began season with three tackles and pass defended as starter vs. Washington (Sept. 9) as Phoenix opened game with five defensive backs ... deflected pass that teammate Tim McDonald grabbed for interception vs. Green Bay (Nov. 18) ... posted four stops and quarterback hurry in 34-14 win over New England (Nov. 25) ... scored game-winning touchdown in 20-17 triumph over Indianapolis (Dec. 2) on first of two now-famous lateral plays... teammate Cedric Mack intercepted a Jeff George pass, returned the ball 14 yards, then lateralled ball to Turner, who sprinted final 21 yards and dove inside end zone marker for the score ... in next week's 24-13 victory at Atlanta (Dec. 9), returned interception 47-yards for score, while also third man to handle ball on another lateral play... Mack again intercepted ball, lateralled to Jay Taylor, who in turn shuffled ball to Turner ... ended season with 13 tackles on special teams, second on club to Lorenzo Lynch (15). 1989: Originally signed to developmental squad (Sept. 6), then elevated to active roster (Sept. 29) ... played in 13 games as extra defensive back and credited with nine tackles and two passes defended along with one forced fumble ... registered season-best five tackles at Washington (Oct. 8) ... eight stops on special teams units. College/Personal: Originally 11th-round selection (283rd overall) by Kansas City in 1989 NFL draft ... standout defensive back at UCLA ... led the Bruins in interceptions as both junior (4) and senior (5) ... three times during collegiate career returned interceptions for touchdowns ... honorable-mention all-Pac 10 pick as senior ... accorded all-America honors as prep wide receiver at Jordan High School in Long Beach, California ... also earned all-city and all-league honors in track ... political science major at UCLA ... born Jan. 13, 1966 ... resides in Phoenix with wife, Martha Julia, and their son, Marcus Jared (Oct. 19, 1989).

Running Back ▲ 6-0 ▲ 230 ▲ Seventh Year
West Virginia ▲ Fourth Round (104th overall), 1985

▲ Quick Facts

- ▲ Earned unprecedented Pro Bowl honors four consecutive seasons (1986-89) for kamikaze-style play on special teams.
- ▲ Voted special teams player-of-the-year by NFL Alumni Association in 1987.
- ▲ Second youngest of five Wolfley children. Older brother, Craig, is veteran guard with Minnesota Vikings. Younger brother, Dale, was starting senior guard at West Virginia last year.
- ▲ Raised in Hamburg, N.Y. within four miles of Rich Stadium, home of Buffalo Bills.

Pro Career: Four-time special teams Pro Bowler and team captain ... often first player down field as wedge-buster to force returns to one side or alter planned return by ball carrier ... adept at springing loose Cards' return man as evidenced by past success of two-time Pro Bowl return specialist Vai Sikaheima (now with Packers) ... as fullback, Wolfley has rushed for 252 yards on 82 carries as short-yardage specialist and vicious blocker ... his blocking prowess is evidenced by the fact that in his nine career starting roles, Cardinals' tailbacks have rushed for a combined 789 yards, an average of over 87.6 yards per game when he paves the way ... such sustained blocking effectiveness over the course of a season would produce a 1,400-yard rusher with Wolfley as the lead blocker. 1990: Made switch from fullback to H-back in new one-back set though his new duties were similar to past fullback role ... carried ball just two times for three yards ... started weeks two and three but placed on injured reserve list Sept. 26 with shoulder injury ... returned to action vs. Chicago (Oct. 28) ... contributed five tackles on special teams ... 25 blocks on return units ranked second on club to Michael Zordich, (46). 1989: Earned unprecedented fourth consecutive selection to Pro Bowl as special teamer ... spearheaded Phoenix units that vaulted from 23rd to third in 1989, including fourth in punt returns, 11th in kickoff returns, and seventh in punt coverage ... clutch 22-yard gain on swing pass with 29 seconds left to set up game-winning field goal in 16-13 thriller over Detroit (Sept. 10) ... started next contest vs. Seattle (Sept. 17) for injured fullback Earl Ferrell and helped pave way for Stump Mitchell's 95-yard rushing day as Cards posted season-high 171 yards rushing ... powered in from five yards out vs. Atlanta (Oct. 22) for first rushing touchdown since 1987 ... blocked first punt vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 26) and also paved way for Ferrell touchdown plow ... caught pass from Rich Camarillo from punt formation vs. Denver (Dec. 16) but was stopped short of first-down yardage ... credited with 13 tackles on special teams coverage units. 1988: Again provided leadership by example with spirited play ... travelled to Pro Bowl for third straight year as special teamer ... played on five special teams (kickoff cover and return, field goal/point-after-touchdown protection, punt cover and return) ... due to extraordinary season by Ferrell, called upon sparingly from scrimmage ... bolted for career-long 20-yard run vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 13) in Cards' first touchdown drive in 24-17 win ... rushed just three times for six yards vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 10) but gained first-down yardage each time ... credited with six solo tackles and consistently ranked near top of coaches' special teams evaluations ... rushed nine times for 43 yards (4.8-yard average) and caught two passes for 11 yards. 1987: Named special teams player-of-the-year by NFL Alumni Association as well as all-NFL team member by Pro Football Weekly ... provided several key blocks on return teams, including one that allowed Sikahema to return punt 33 yards to set up touchdown at Philadelphia (Nov. 22) ... started Cardinals' last four games at fullback when Ferrell was placed on injured reserve list (knee injury) ... during that final month, Wolfley's blocking paved way for Mitchell to amass 404 yards rushing in four games ... rushed for 87 yards on 26 carries and caught eight passes for 68 yards. 1986: Although credited with only three tackles, earned Pro Bowl notice by serving as club's "wedge-buster" and by springing Sikahema with key blocks on kickoff and punt return units ... voted to all-NFC team by NFL Players Association/USA Today as special teams player in 1986 ... special teams captain ... rushed for 19 yards on eight carries and snared two passes for 32 yards, including 28-yard gain on swing pass at Dallas (Oct. 26). 1985: Left mark each week as fine special teams player ... credited with just two tackles but was force on kickoff coverage units ... carried ball 24 times from fullback spot for 64 yards ... one start vs. L.A. Rams (Dec. 15) ... caught two passes for 18 yards ... returned 13 kickoffs for 18-yard average. College/Personal: Produced career totals of 1,328 yards rushing and 11 touchdowns at West Virginia despite serving primarily as blocking back ... Mountaineers' leading rusher during junior and senior seasons ... turned fake punt into 67-yard touchdown in 1983 vs. Boston College ... born Oct. 14, 1962 in Blaisdel, N.Y. ... attended Frontier Central High School in Hamburg, N.Y. ... attained prep all-America honors as tailback ... construction currently underway for gymnasium he will own and operate with brother in Orchard Park appropriately named "Wolfley's Gym" ... he and wife, Kathy, reside in Phoenix with their daughters, Ashley Anne (Dec. 21, 1983) and Jenna Leigh (Aug. 21, 1990), and son Connor (Oct. 29, 1985).

▲ Quick Facts

- ▲ Spent Saturday prior to Cards' Oct. 29, 1989 game at Dallas with expectant wife in Phoenix hospital. Joined team in Dallas late the same night. Received call in wee hours Sunday morning informing him he was a father. Though bleary-eyed, he returned third quarter interception for touchdown and downed key punt at five-yard line in Cards' 19-10 win. Returned home to proudly deposit game ball in son Michael Vincent's crib that evening.
- ▲ Three interceptions as pro, two for touchdowns.
- ▲ Member of Penn State's '82 national title team.
- ▲ Received degree in hotel, restaurant and institutional management from Penn State.
- ▲ Co-sponsors charity golf tournament with N.Y. Giant quarterback Matt Cavanaugh in their native Youngstown, Ohio during the off-season.

Pro Career: Signed as Plan B free agent Mar. 2, 1989 ... has led all

Phoenix non-starters in tackles each of last two seasons (59 in 1989, 27 in 1990) ... off-season trade of former starting free safety Lonnie Young puts Zordich in competition for starting role in 1991 ... former free agent whose toughness and ability to "make the play" earned him a suit with N.Y. Jets in 1987 and a starting assignment in seven games for Phoenix in 1989 ... claims three career interceptions, returning two for scores ... selected by San Diego in ninth round of 1986 draft (235th overall) but released at end of preseason. 1990: Led all non-starters with 27 tackles as valuable reserve defensive back ... 46 blocks on special teams also rated tops on club, 21 more than nearest teammate—four-time Pro Bowler Ron Wolfley with 25 ... situational player during season with impressive run support as well as pass defense abilities in particular defensive schemes ... recorded four tackles at New Orleans (Sept. 23), then registered season-best nine stops vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 21) ... helped seal victory at Atlanta (Dec. 9) with 38-yard interception return at four-minute mark of fourth quarter in 24-13 win ... collected three tackles apiece at Buffalo (Nov. 11), at Dallas (Dec. 16) and in season finale vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 29). 1989: Supplied tough, smart play in 16 games with seven starting roles ... led all non-regular starters with 59 tackles while also adding one interception return for touchdown and one quarterback sack ... also deflected four passes ... saw extensive action in season-opening 16-13 win over Detroit (Sept. 10) after Young suffered elbow injury ... proceeded to start next seven contests until Young returned ... posted seven stops and kayoed Phil Simms on blitz vs. N.Y. Giants (Sept. 24), forcing fumble Cardinals recovered ... credited with seven tackles vs. Washington (Oct. 8) ... seven solo stops and two pass deflections in 34-20 win over Atlanta (Oct. 22) ... won game ball for performances in 19-10 win over Dallas (Oct. 29) with six tackles and interception for score when he gathered in batted pass for 16-yard return vs. Cowboys to give Cards 13-3 third quarter lead ... also downed key punt on five-yard line ... followed with another game ball vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 5) with five tackles and two stops on special teams coverage units ... relegated to reserve status with return of Young in game nine but contributed noticeably on special teams ... only Garth Jax (30) had more coverage tackles than Zordich (18). 1988: Notched 10 tackles, including 35-yard interception return for touchdown ... also bagged 19 tackles on special teams to rank fourth on club. 1987: Signed with Jets as free agent but released (Sept. 6) on final roster cutdown ... re-signed (Sept. 14) and made nine tackles and one sack as reserve defensive back in 10 games ... added nine more stops as member of special teams units. College/Personal: Four-year letterman at Penn State and consensus all-America and all-East pick ... finished collegiate career as school's 12th all-time leading tackler with 201 stops ... football and baseball standout at Chaney High School in hometown of Youngstown, Ohio ... born Oct. 12, 1963 ... he and wife, Cindy, reside in Phoenix with their sons, Michael Vincent (Oct. 29, 1989) and Alex Joseph (July 5, 1991).

DRAFT CHOICES

Eric Swann ▲ 98

Defensive Lineman ▲ 6-4 ▲ 310

Bay State (Lynn, Mass.) Titans ▲ First Round (6th overall)

Probably the leading human interest story in the 1991 NFL draft ... did not play college football after failing to qualify academically ... rare blend of power and quickness for a man his size ... excellent work habits ... hustling style ... avid weightlifter ... attributes overcame lack of experience to interest NFL scouts. In 1990: Selected to the "Super Sleeper Team" by The Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft ... also listed as the most underrated defensive prospect in the draft by that publication ... started all season on the left side of the defensive line for the 8-3 Bay State (Lynn, Mass.) Titans of the Minor League Football System (no salaries but provided jobs) ... played both tackle and end ... finished third on the team with 72 tackles (46 solos) ... led the Titans with 11 quarterback sacks, 33 pressures, and 7 stops of opposing ball carriers behind the line of scrimmage ... led the team with four caused fumbles and four blocked kicks ... batted away seven passes ... registered a sensational play against Scranton, blocking a field goal attempt and getting up from the pile to throw a key downfield block as Titan defensive back Mike Andrews raced 80 yards for a touchdown with the recovery ... Swann finished the day with 8 tackles, 1 sack, 2 tackles for loss, and 4 pressures ... made six tackles with three pressures and a 14-yard sack against Georgia ... 8 tackles (5 solos), 1 sack, 1 fumble caused, 1 fumble recovery, 1 blocked extra-point attempt, 1 blocked field-goal attempt against the Florida Renegades ... seven stops with a seven-yard sack and two stops on special teams in addition to batting away a pair of passes, including one on a crucial fourth-down play late in the fourth quarter that thwarted a last-ditch Georgia scoring drive to preserve a Bay State victory ... also lugged piping for an electric company and ran errands for a restaurant while playing for the Titans ... coached by Ray "Sugar Bear" Hamilton, now a Tampa Bay assistant. In 1989: The heavily-recruited Swann signed with North Carolina State as "the most highly recruited player we ever signed" according to Wolfpack Head Coach Dick Sheridan ... after being ruled academically ineligible, did not enroll at N.C. State as a "Proposition 48" student-athlete or in a junior college or "prep" school ... instead, moved to Raleigh where he spent the year working at odd jobs that included maintenance work at the North Carolina State Fairgrounds and attending Wake Technical College ... did not play football. High School: Named a "Super Prep All-American" at Western Harnett High School in Lillington, N.C. ... a 2.7 grade-

'90 Preview

'90 REVIEW

Outside linebacker Ken Harvey emerged as an NFL force in 1990 with 99 tackles and a team-leading total of 10 quarterback sacks.

The Phoenix Cardinals began the 1990s as the past decade ended—with a 5-11 record. But the similarities seemed to end there.

After the Cards' first season under Head Coach Joe Bugel and his staff, the team looks to 1991 with considerable anticipation and hope.

The infusion of Bugel's patented brand of enthusiasm into the organization, the arrival and development of an outstanding corps of young players that followed a successful draft, the promise of new offensive and defensive schemes, several near-miss 1990 outcomes, and the opening of the team's new state-of-the-art training complex have come together as reasons for the optimism.

▲ The Big Picture

The Cardinals faced a trying early-season schedule that assigned them to contests against eventual playoff qualifiers eight of the first nine weeks, a stint complicated by six road assignments, including the first three.

After upsetting the Eagles at Philadelphia the second week and dominating Dallas in its fifth outing, Phoenix sat 2-3 after five games only to run into the Giants, Chicago, Miami, and Buffalo in successive weeks, a stretch that sent the Cardinals into a five-game losing streak and ended realistic hopes of a winning season or playoff berth.

A three-game November-December winning streak brought respectability to the record as did near-miss losses to the Giants twice, Green Bay, and Philadelphia.

▲ The Offense

New faces (four new starters) and a new scheme (Bugel's one-back alignment) spelled steady offensive improvement.

Bugel, who preaches the need for an effective rushing attack, particularly in the NFC East Division, placed preseason emphasis on improving the Cardinals' ground game that finished 27th in the NFL in 1989 with only 85.1 yards per game and no 100-yard single-game rushers.

Presto, the 1990 Cardinals emerged as a consistent rushing team, averaging 119.7 yards per game to rank 12th in the NFL, a dramatic improvement of 34.6 yards per game. The revived rushing attack also boasted four 100-yard performances by two talented rookie R-backs—Johnny Johnson (three) and Anthony Thompson (one).

Johnson, who climaxed his sensational rookie season by becoming the only Cardinal selected to the Pro Bowl, led the NFC in rushing until spraining his right ankle November 25 against New England. He missed most of three games due to the injury before returning full-time December 16 at Dallas.

Johnson's first 100-yard effort was a 120-yard performance against the Cowboys on October 14, the first 100-yard effort by a Cardinal since fullback Earl Ferrell gained 110 versus Dallas on October 23, 1988. The next Sunday at New York against the Giants, Johnson gained 108 yards rushing on 30 carries. The effort marked the second consecutive week Johnson bettered the 100-yard barrier, a Cardinal first since October 23 and 30, 1988 when Ferrell registered back-to-back 100-yard efforts with 110-yard games against Cleveland and Dallas, respectively.

Johnson's 30 carries against the Giants on October 21 were the most by a Cardinal since December 26, 1982 when Ottis Anderson gained 110 yards against the Giants on 30 carries. His New York debut also marked the first time in 21 games the Giants had allowed 100 yards rushing by an individual.

In his last pre-injury outing against Green Bay on November 18, Johnson posted his third 100-yard effort, a 103-yard afternoon that included a 41-yard jaunt, the Cards' longest rush from scrimmage since Ferrell's 44-yard touchdown ramble at Washington on October 8, 1989.

Johnson eventually led NFL rookies in total yards from scrimmage (1,167), became the first Cardinal rookie to lead the team in rushing since Anderson in 1979, and surpassed the Cards' leading 1989 rusher, Earl Ferrell (502 yards), in half a season.

Thompson, whose late arrival to training camp due to protracted contract negotiations gave Johnson the opportunity he didn't waste, capitalized on his first extended playing time in relief of Johnson. Over a three-week span, Thompson averaged 102 yards rushing per game.

Thompson, the 1989 Heisman Trophy runner-up and the Cardinals' first choice (second round) in the 1990 NFL draft, gained 136 yards on 28 carries against the Patriots on November 25 with one touchdown. The 136-yard effort was the most yards registered by a Cardinal running back since Stump Mitchell logged 158 versus New Orleans on December 8, 1985.

On December 2 against the Colts, Thompson encored with 74 yards on 18 carries in three quarters after entering the game early in the second quarter when Johnson reinjured his sprained right ankle. December 9 at Atlanta, he logged 96 yards on 26 carries, including a 40-yard gallop late in the contest that was his longest run from scrimmage since a 55-yard burst as a college sophomore.

The new-found rushing ability that boasted a 4.25-yard average, the team's best mean since 4.26 in 1986, was primarily the work of Johnson, Thompson, a feisty, mobile second-year quarterback, Timm Rosenbach, and a veteran offensive line that was augmented by new center Bill Lewis, an off-season Plan B free agent acquisition whose arrival allowed center Derek Kennard to shift to guard. When blended with three-time Pro Bowl tackle Luis Sharpe and his bookend, Tootie Robbins, and dependable guard Lance Smith, the Cardinals became adept at Bugel's version of smash-mouth football while also limiting the enemy to only 43 quarterback sacks for minus 285 yards, a 13-sack, 94-yard improvement over the previous season and the best protection numbers since 1979 when the Cardinals allowed 39 sacks. The Cards' "sackless" outing versus Dallas on October 14 was the team's first since week two of the 1989 season.

The scrambling Rosenbach's rushing contributions cannot be minimized. One of only two NFL quarterbacks to take every snap in 1990, the former Washington State star's 470 yards rushing were second among league quarterbacks only to Philadelphia's Randall Cunningham (942). Rosenbach, whose running threat increasingly kept opposing defenses honest, registered two rushing touchdowns November 25 against New England, a first for a Cardinal signal-caller since Neil Lomax crossed the goal line twice versus San Diego on November 20, 1983. Rosenbach followed with another rushing six-pointer December 2 against Indianapolis, making him the first Card quarterback since Jim Hart in 1974 (weeks nine-10) to rush for touchdowns in consecutive games.

The passing attack also underwent a transformation when the controls were handed to the untested Rosenbach during training camp.

Rosenbach, who appeared in just two games as a rookie, showed his inexperience during the campaign's early going but matured rapidly. He posted mid-season interceptionless streaks of 101 and 96 pass attempts after suffering seven interceptions in the season's first four games. He became the first Cardinal quarterback to avoid interception in three consecutive games (weeks six-eight) since Lomax enjoyed a four-game stretch in 1986 (weeks six-nine).

Rosenbach's first two 300-yard outings were the season's final two games when he threw for 682 yards, completing 42 of 72 passes for 6 touchdowns. He followed 381 yards against the Giants with 301 yards against the Eagles, the first back-to-back 300-yard passing days by a Cardinal quarterback since Lomax threw for 323 yards against the 49ers and 353 yards versus the Giants on November 6 and 13, 1988, respectively.

In the end, Rosenbach amassed 3,098 yards passing, ranking behind only the L.A. Rams' Jim Everett (3,989), San Francisco's Joe Montana (3,944), and Cunningham (3,466) in the NFC.

Rosenbach benefitted from one of the league's deepest corps of receivers—veterans Roy Green, J.T. Smith, and Ernie Jones and rookie Ricky Proehl.

Proehl (56 receptions), Green (53), and Jones (43)—a.k.a. "The Posse"—each caught 40 or more passes. Only two other times in team history have three wide receivers combined to accomplish the feat—Smith (62), Jones (45), and Green (44) in 1989 and Green (50), Pat Tilley (49), and Smith (43) in 1985.

Proehl, the chief benefactor of Rosenbach's marksmanship en route to establishing a Card rookie reception record and heading the class of the league's rookie receivers, became the first rookie to lead the team in receiving in 40 years. Bob Shaw was the last first-year player to turn the trick in 1950.

Green used 1990, his 12th season, to become the franchise leader in career pass receptions (522) and career reception yardage (8,497), breaking the club marks of former tight end

Jackie Smith who caught 480 passes for 7,918 yards from 1963-76. He broke the former standard October 14 against the Cowboys and the latter two weeks later against Chicago. Green also is the team's all-time touchdown leader with 69.

Jones replaced Smith as a starter November 4 and responded with 33 receptions for 557 yards and 4 touchdowns in an eight-game span. His 68-yard touchdown pass reception against the Giants on December 23 was the Cards' longest play of the season.

In all, the Phoenix offense ranked 18th in the NFL after finishing 24th in 1989.

▲ The Defense

The Cardinals' most noteworthy 1990 defensive storyline was a mid-season philosophical change that switched the scheme from a "four-three" to a "three-four" alignment after four games during the Cardinals' two-week preparation period around the NFL's "open date" weekend for the NFC East Division.

Immediate improvement was seen when the "three-four" debut smothered Dallas into a Cowboy single-game record for offensive futility by limiting the Cowboys to 100 total net yards (66 yards rushing, 34 yards passing) October 14 at Sun Devil Stadium.

The unit strung together outstanding efforts weeks 12-14, limiting New England to 94 total yards (57 passing, 37 rushing) in the second half November 25, Indianapolis to 103 total second-stanza yards (85 passing, 18 rushing) December 2, and Atlanta to 96 yards rushing for the game December 9.

By season's end, the 12-game "three-four" numbers showed improvement over the four-game "four-three" statistics in almost every category. Per game, the "three-four" improved by an average of 8.8 points, 2.2 first downs, 34.4 total yards, 44 yards passing, and 1.1 quarterback sacks.

('90 Review continued on page 138) ◀

Quarterback Timm Rosenbach on the run, a familiar sight for Cardinal fans.

Compared to the 1989 campaign, the Cardinals defenders improved by 661 total yards, 677 passing yards, 23 first downs, and 6 quarterback sacks while forcing 13 more punts.

Strong safety Tim McDonald led the team in tackles for the third consecutive year, posting 132 tackles (101 solos, 31 assists). His secondary mate, Lonnie Young, finished second with 111 stops (82 solos, 29 assists). The pair formed one of the league's finest and hardest-hitting safety tandems. December 16 at Dallas, the duo combined for 18 solo tackles.

Outside linebacker Ken Harvey also made his case for mention among the game's best at his position. Besides 99 tackles, the cat-quick Harvey, who was utilized at end in pass-rushing situations, notched a team-leading 10 quarterback sacks to rank eighth in the NFC. Three of the 10 occurred at Atlanta on December 9, the best single-game effort by a Cardinal since defensive end Freddie Joe Nunn posted three at Dallas on October 30, 1988.

Inside linebacker Garth Jax, who became a starter week five in the switch to the "three-four," made the first pass interception by a Cardinal linebacker against his former team, the Dallas Cowboys, on October 14. It also was Jax's first career interception.

Nunn enjoyed a good campaign, finishing with 47 tackles and 9 sacks. He now owns 39 career sacks in 56 games at end since his transition from linebacker.

The Cardinals gained national attention Nov. 21 when they claimed reinstated former Washington Redskin defensive end Dexter Manley on waivers. Eligible for the season's final four games, Manley was used sparingly and primarily in passing situations.

Cornerback Cedric Mack started the season's two most memorable defensive plays with pass interceptions that ended with laterals. December 2 against the Colts, Mack lateraled for a touchdown and for field position December 9 at Atlanta leading to the Cards' go-ahead touchdown.

Reserve defensive back Marcus Turner scored the only two defensive touchdowns of the season. He grabbed Mack's lateral against the Colts and raced the final 21 yards for the touchdown. He also returned his first professional pass interception 47 yards for a touchdown December 9 at Atlanta.

Like the Cardinal offense, the Phoenix defense ranked 18th in the NFL.

▲ Special Teams

The highlight of the special teams' year was the punting of veteran Rich Camarillo and the success of the punt coverage unit.

Camarillo, the NFL's leading punter in 1989, led the NFC and tied for second in the league with the Colts' Rohn Stark in net punting with a 37.4-yard average. Camarillo finished third in the NFC with a 42.8-yard overall punting average, no small feat after suffering through one of the longest days of his career at Buffalo's inclement Rich Stadium on Nov. 11 where he helplessly watched two wind-blown 12-yard punts drop his average two yards.

Camarillo's talents aided the Cardinals' punt return coverage team that allowed a mere 6.3-yard average return, second in the league to San Diego's 4.7-yard mark.

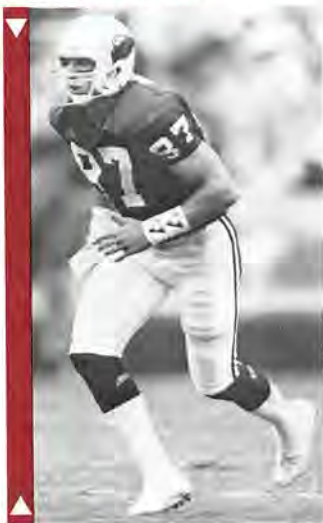

Kicker Al Del Greco tallied 82 points for the second consecutive season to again lead the Cardinals in scoring. He registered a streak of seven consecutive field goals early in the campaign. He was the week-two hero at Philadelphia with three field goals, including the game-winner from 42 yards with 25 seconds remaining. It was the fifth game-winner of his career and his second as a Cardinal. He has made 35 of 53 field goal attempts (66 percent) over the past two seasons.

Vai Sikahema, one of the league's steadiest return men, ranked sixth in the NFC with an 8.5-yard punt return average while his 20.1-yard kickoff return mean was good for ninth in the conference. His 193 career punt returns are a Cardinal record. He also holds club marks for career punt return yardage (2,152), single-season punt returns (44, 1987), single-season punt return yardage (550, 1987), and single-game punt return yardage (145 vs. Tampa Bay, December 21, 1986).

Rookie R-back Larry Centers, who began returning kickoffs the second half of the season, tied a long-standing club mark with seven kickoff returns versus Dallas on Dec. 16. His day equalled the single-game record shared by three others—Stump Mitchell (Oct. 18, 1981 at Atlanta and Nov. 6, 1981 at Washington), Terry Metcalf (Oct. 9, 1977 vs. Dallas), and Willie Carter (Oct. 25, 1953 vs. Philadelphia).

Special teams tackle leaders were reserve defensive backs Lorenzo Lynch (15), Turner (13), Harvey (12), and Michael Zordich (11). During Cardinal returns, Zordich led the unit with 46 blocks followed by back-up H-back and four-time Pro Bowl special teams choice Ron Wolfley (25) and Lynch (23).

Rickey Proehl became the first rookie to lead the Cardinals in receiving in 40 years.

GAME SUMMARIES

▲ Redskins 31, Cardinals 0

Sept. 9 ▲ R.F.K. Stadium (52,649)

Five Phoenix turnovers (four pass interceptions and one lost fumble) resulted in all 31 Redskins points and proved more than a gutsy Cardinal defense could overcome in Joe Bugel's debut as the Cards' head coach. The deceiving final score belied a resilient defensive effort by the Cardinals, holding the potent Redskin offense to one first down three times and none on two other occasions out of 10 Washington possessions.

Rookie R-back Johnny Johnson shined in his professional debut, leading the Cardinals in both rushing (14 att., 99 yards) and pass receiving (6 rec., 56 yards). Ditto fellow rookie wide receiver Ricky Proehl (5 rec., 56 yards).

In his second career start, quarterback Timm Rosenbach completed 20 of 39 passes for 228 yards. Three of his four interceptions were deflected passes.

Head Coach Joe Bugel earned his first victory with a come-from-behind upset at Philadelphia.

The Eagles took a 14-0 lead but the Cards knotted the score with the first touchdowns by rookies Johnny Johnson and Anthony Thompson.

After Philadelphia regained the lead 21-14, Phoenix capped its final three possessions with Al Del Greco field goals. The last, with 25 seconds left, was the fifth game-winner of his career.

The Cards followed two second-half Eagle turnovers with points. Strong safety Tim McDonald's 38-yard pass interception return to the Eagles' 13 yard line set the table for Thompson's plunge. Cornerback Jay Taylor's first career pillar and 16-yard return set the stage for Del Greco's second field goal. The Cards drove 32 yards in eight plays prior to Del Greco's game-winner.

▲ Saints 28, Cardinals 7

Sept. 23 ▲ Louisiana Superdome (61,110)

The Cardinals self-destructed in a 28-7 loss at New Orleans.

Twelve penalties (minus 106 yards), a fumble, a pass interception, a missed field goal, and a blocked field-goal attempt were the culprits.

The Saints scored first late in the first half on a 14-yard pass from quarterback John Fourcade to wide receiver Eric Martin to end a drive that began following Al Del Greco's blocked 37-yard field-goal attempt.

Phoenix knotted the score on its first second-half possession on a 37-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Timm Rosenbach to wide receiver Ricky Proehl, a professional first for both players.

After holding New Orleans short of a first down on the next series, a 15-yard penalty gave the ball back to the Saints. Four plays later, they were in the end zone with their go-ahead touchdown.

Phoenix fumbled the ball away on its next possession after driving into Saints' territory. Two New Orleans rushes, a long pass completion, and a touchdown rush later, the Saints owned an insurmountable 21-7 lead.

▲ Redskins 38, Cardinals 10

Sept. 30 ▲ Sun Devil Stadium (49,303)

The Cardinals and Redskins played two games in one in their 1990 rematch that served as the Phoenix regular-season home opener.

After dropping a 31-0 decision at Washington in the season idler, the Cardinals served notice in an evenly-fought first half that things might be different the second time around.

After kicker Al Del Greco gave the Cards the first lead of the game with a 32-yard field goal, the Redskins answered with a one-yard touchdown by Gerald Riggs. However, Card quarterback Timm Rosenbach tossed a 12-yard touchdown pass to Roy Green late in the second quarter to stake Phoenix to a 10-7 intermission advantage.

The second half was all Washington. The 'Skins outscored Phoenix 31-0 and the statistics told the story. Washington commanded advantages in total yards (311-88), rushing (128-2), passing (183-47), and time of possession (21:03-9:57).

▲ Cardinals 20, Cowboys 3

Oct. 14 ▲ Sun Devil Stadium (45,235)

The Cardinals posted their most impressive effort of 1990 following their "bye" week with a 20-3 victory over Dallas, the fourth consecutive Phoenix success against the Cowboys. The Cards unveiled their new "three-four" defense to limit Dallas to 100 total net yards (66 rushing, 34 passing), 9 first downs, and only 3 points. It marked the first time since 1986 a Cardinal opponent had gained 100 yards or less and the first time since 1983 a Card foe had not scored a touchdown. The defense also intercepted two Troy Aikman passes, sacked the Dallas quarterback four times, and recovered one fumble.

Veteran wide receiver Roy Green caught six passes to become the franchise career pass reception leader with 485 catches, eclipsing the mark of former tight end Jackie Smith (480). Rookie R-back Johnny Johnson continued to impress with 120 yards rushing, the first time a Card running back cracked the 100-yard plateau since Earl Ferrell's 110-yard effort at Dallas on Oct. 30, 1988.

Oct. 21 ▲ Giants Stadium (76,518)

Phoenix was on the verge of its first victory at Giants Stadium since 1983 after taking a 19-10 lead with 5:38 to play, but the Super Bowl-bound New Yorkers earned a dramatic 20-19 victory on Matt Bahr's 40-yard field goal as time expired.

After evening the score 10-10 before halftime when tackle Luis Sharpe made his first career pass reception on a one-yard touchdown toss, Phoenix built second-half leads of 13-10, 16-10, and 19-10 on Al Del Greco field goals.

The Giants rallied with a 38-yard Jeff Hostetler-to-Stephen Baker touchdown pass with 3:19 to play, and Bahr's climactic field goal.

Card running back Johnny Johnson gained 108 yards rushing, the second consecutive week he bettered 100 yards to become the first Cardinal to accomplish the feat since Oct. 23 and 30, 1988 (Earl Ferrell). He also became the first Giant opponent to reach 100 yards in 21 games.

▲ Bears 31, Cardinals 21

Oct. 28 ▲ Sun Devil Stadium (71,233)

The renewal of the NFL's oldest series saw the Cardinals spot the Chicago Bears an insurmountable 28-0 second-quarter lead in unseasonable mid-90s heat before falling 31-21.

The near-sellout crowd of 71,233 was the largest all-time attendance for a Cardinal home game and the largest in the history of the series that began in 1920 when the two teams shared Chicago.

The Bears scored touchdowns on three of their first four possessions, including a one-play 67-yard drive featuring a Jim Harbaugh-to-Ron Morris touchdown bomb midway through the second quarter to raise Chicago's advantage to 21-0.

The Cards scored or threatened on their next four possessions, beginning with their final drive of the first half that ended with a three-yard touchdown pass from Timm Rosenbach to J.T. Smith. The drive also included a nine-yard pass completion to Roy Green that made him the Cardinals' career leader in pass reception yardage.

▲ Dolphins 23, Cardinals 3

Nov. 4 ▲ Joe Robbie Stadium (54,924)

The Dolphins controlled the ball and the Cardinals in a methodical 23-3 victory. Differences of nine minutes in time of possession and 14 offensive plays highlighted Miami's statistical advantages. In the pivotal third quarter with Phoenix facing a surmountable deficit of 13-3, the Dolphins held the football for 12:58 of the stanza's 15 minutes and tallied 10 points to pad their lead to the final margin of 23-3.

The NFL-leading Miami defense stymied the Cardinal offense, limiting Phoenix to 205 total yards, including only 74 net yards rushing. The Cardinal offense drove across midfield only twice and failed to score a touchdown for the second time in 1990.

Phoenix punter Rich Camarillo enjoyed one of his finest days as a professional, averaging 50.8 yards on five punts, including a 63-yarder on his first effort.

Nov. 11 ▲ Rich Stadium (74,904)

Inclément Rich Stadium and the Bills were more than the Cards could handle as Phoenix fell for the fourth straight week to a division leader.

After Phoenix converted a fumble recovery into a 7-0 lead and Buffalo drove 75 yards to tie the game, the Cards yielded a quick score following a bobbled center snap by punter Rich Camarillo that gave Buffalo the ball at the Phoenix six yard line. The Bills later covered 71 yards in three plays in the first half's final 57 seconds to turn a tight contest into a 21-7 lead.

The Bills later turned short fields resulting from a pass interception, a fumble, and a wind-blown 12-yard punt into 21 more points.

The miserable weather conditions and stout Buffalo defense stymied Phoenix into season lows in total net yards (127), net yards passing (46), offensive plays (43), pass attempts (10) completions (5), and time of possession (21:58).

Nov. 18 ▲ Sun Devil Stadium (46,878)

The Cardinals suffered a bitter loss as Green Bay rallied for two touchdowns in the final 6:20 to turn a 21-10 deficit into a 24-21 victory.

The Pack struck quickly on a 54-yard touchdown pass from Don Majkowski to Sterling Sharpe on the game's fifth play. They increased their lead to 10-0 with a second-quarter field goal.

The Cards seemingly took command by scoring touchdowns on their last possession of the first half and first two drives of the second stanza.

But Green Bay rallied with two touchdowns to earn the dramatic victory. Its final opportunity began with good field position at the Packer 44 yard line with 2:10 remaining after the Cardinals failed to convert a fourth-and-inches rushing attempt.

The Phoenix offense impressed with 441 total yards. Johnny Johnson cracked 100 yards rushing for the third time.

▲ Cardinals 34, Patriots 14

Nov. 25 ▲ Sun Devil Stadium (30,110)

The Cardinals snapped their five-game losing streak behind the 136-yard rushing performance of rookie Anthony Thompson. The verdict extended the Patriots' losing skid to nine games and provided the Cards' largest margin of victory since moving to Arizona in 1988.

With Johnny Johnson sidelined with a sprained ankle, Thompson made the most of his opportunity. His 136 rushing yards were the most by a Cardinal since Stump Mitchell logged 158 versus New Orleans on Dec. 8, 1985.

Timm Rosenbach posted two rushing touchdowns, a first for a Card quarterback since Neil Lomax in 1983.

The two teams played a 14-14 first half. In the second half, the Phoenix defense limited the Pats to 94 total yards (57 passing, 37 rushing). The Card defenders equalled their season high with five quarterback sacks. For the afternoon, New England managed only 256 total yards.

Cardinal special teams also contributed with two fumble recoveries on kickoffs.

▲ Cardinals 20, Colts 17

Dec. 2 ▲ Sun Devil Stadium (31,885)

The Cards rode a staunch second-half defensive effort for the second straight week to rally against Indianapolis, providing Phoenix its first back-to-back victories since Oct. 22 and 29, 1989 and its first consecutive home victories since Nov. 6 and 13, 1988.

A field goal and a short-field drive following a Phoenix fumble gave the Colts a quick 10-0 lead. Two field goals by the Cards' Al Del Greco narrowed the Indianapolis edge to 10-6 by halftime.

The Colts clung to a 17-13 lead after Card quarterback Timm Rosenbach scored his third rushing touchdown in two games. The contest's spectacular turning point followed an exchange of punts. Colt quarterback Jeff George's pass from deep in his own territory with 10:19 left was intercepted by Phoenix cornerback Cedric Mack. Two laterals to fellow defensive backs Jay Taylor and Marcus Turner produced a touchdown for the game's final points.

The Phoenix defense set the table for the second-half comeback by limiting the Colts to 8 first downs, 24 offensive plays, and 103 total yards (85 passing, 18 rushing) in the second stanza.

Dec. 9 ▲ Atlanta-Fulton Co. Stadium (36,222)

The Cardinals rode their defense to victory for the third consecutive week at Atlanta. Besides intercepting three Falcon passes and recovering a fumble, Phoenix limited the Falcons to 96 yards rushing, 14 pass completions in 31 attempts, and only two third-down conversions in 11 tries (zero-for-five in the second half).

En route to its first three-game winning streak since 1988, Phoenix claimed the contest when defensive back Marcus Turner returned his first career interception 47 yards for his second touchdown in as many weeks to turn a 17-13 Card lead into a 24-13 edge. It was the second straight week the Phoenix defense scored a touchdown, a first since weeks four and five in 1988.

The Cards' other second-half touchdown (Anthony Thompson) also was the work of the defense following a Cedric Mack pass interception for the second week in a row.

Outside linebacker Ken Harvey registered the Cards' first three-quarterback sack effort since Oct. 30, 1988.

▲ Cowboys 41, Cardinals 10

Dec. 16 ▲ Texas Stadium (60,190)

The Cardinals' three-game winning streak came to a halt at Dallas as the Cowboys dominated for a 41-10 victory and their first success against the Cards in five meetings.

Phoenix contributed heavily to its own demise with season lows in first downs (9) and rushing yards (49) and highs in penalties (12) and penalty yards (123) in addition to tossing three pass interceptions and losing one fumble.

Cowboy rookie running back Emmitt Smith led the attack with 103 yards rushing and four rushing touchdowns, the latter breaking the single-game record for a Cardinal foe and equalling the Dallas mark.

After the Cardinals drove to take a 3-0 lead, the Pokes responded with five unanswered touchdowns.

Freddie Joe Nunn and Tim McDonald recovered fumbles, Ken Harvey recorded a sack for the third straight week, and Garth Jax made his second career pass interception. Both have been at the expense of his former teammates.

▲ Giants 24, Cardinals 21

Dec. 23 ▲ Sun Devil Stadium (41,212)

For the second time in 1990, the Cardinals and Giants waged a nip-and-tuck battle that wasn't decided until the game's final minute. The Cardinals best offensive day of the season—452 total yards, 368 net yards passing, 16 first downs passing, eight plays over 20 yards—was not enough to overcome the eventual Super Bowl champions. It also was the Cardinals fifth consecutive setback to the Giants.

Card quarterback Timm Rosenbach enjoyed his top passing day as a professional, completing 23 of 41 pass attempts for 381 yards and three touchdowns, including a 68-yard scoring strike to wide receiver Ernie Jones, all career bests.

The Cards spotted New York and its league-leading defense a 10-0 first-half lead but Rosenbach's first touchdown pass, an 11-yarder to R-back Terrence Flagler, cut the advantage to 10-7 before intermission.

The teams traded long touchdown passes in the third quarter and short seven-point tallies in the fourth stanza to set the scene for the game's conclusion with the Cards' final drive ending in Giant territory.

▲ Eagles 23, Cardinals 21

Dec. 29 ▲ Sun Devil Stadium (31,796)

The Cardinals concluded their second consecutive 5-11 season with a 23-21 loss to playoff-bound Philadelphia at Sun Devil Stadium.

Phoenix spotted the Eagles a 13-0 lead. The first of three touchdown passes by quarterback Timm Rosenbach cut the Philadelphia advantage to 13-7 by halftime, but the Eagles regained the upper hand with Randall Cunningham's third touchdown loss and a 44-yard field goal. The Cardinals fought back with touchdown passes to Ricky Proehl and J.T. Smith.

Rosenbach registered his second consecutive outing with over 300 yards passing and three touchdown passes. Proehl's seven receptions gave him 56 for the season, a Cardinal rookie record. It also made him the first rookie to lead the club in receiving since Bob Shaw in 1950. Pro Bowl-bound rookie R-back Johnny Johnson ended the season as the NFL's rookie leader in total yards from scrimmage (1,167-926 rushing/241 receiving).

History

FRANCHISE HISTORY

The Cardinals, a charter member of the National Football League, boast the distinction of being the oldest continuously run professional football franchise in the nation.

▲ The Early Days

Founded in 1898, the team began as a neighborhood group which gathered to play football in a predominantly Irish area of Chicago's south side, playing under the name Morgan Athletic Club. The team later was acquired by Chris O'Brien, a painting and decorating contractor, and soon its playing site changed to nearby Normal Field, prompting the new name Normals.

In 1901, the team gained longstanding identification when O'Brien, finding a bargain, bought used jerseys from the University of Chicago. The jerseys were faded maroon in color, prompting O'Brien to declare, "That's not maroon, it's Cardinal red!" The club's permanent nickname had been born!

The jersey color and the location of the field led to a new and obvious name, the Racine Cardinals.

In Chicago at the time, football competition was exclusively amateur but such opposition became increasingly hard to find, so in 1906, the team had to disband.

In 1913, O'Brien reorganized the Cardinals. By 1917 they were able to buy new uniforms and hire a coach, Marston Smith. That year they lost only two games and were champions of the Chicago Football League.

The war in Europe and a flu epidemic in the United States forced the team to suspend operations once again in 1918. Following Armistice Day, O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time. From that day forward, the Cardinals have been a permanent part of the professional football scene in America.

▲ Growth

The Racine Cardinals, their popularity growing in the Chicago area, eventually became one of 11 charter members of the American Professional Football League, forerunner of the NFL, in 1920 for the $100 franchise fee. Immediately after joining the league, O'Brien lured a great halfback, John "Paddy" Driscoll, to the Cardinals for $3,000 a year, a sum considered outlandish at the time. But Driscoll was an authentic superstar, a superior runner, blocker, punter, and possibly the finest drop kicker in the history of football.

In 1922, a team from Racine, Wis. joined the NFL, forcing the Cardinals to change their name to the Chicago Cardinals. The Cardinals also moved into their new home, Comiskey Park, the same year.

Under new Head Coach Norman Barry, the Cardinals outdistanced a field of 20 teams to win their first NFL championship in 1925.

A Chicago doctor, Dr. David Jones, purchased the team in 1929. In his first year of ownership, he coaxed running back Ernie Nevers out of retirement to become player-coach. Still in his prime, the 26-year-old Nevers scored 40 points on six touchdowns and four extra points in an historic 40-6 victory over the crosstown Bears on Thanksgiving Day, 1929.

The Cardinals defeated the Philadelphia Eagles at frozen Comiskey Park in Chicago to win the 1947 NFL championship.

After guiding the Cardinals to a 16-14-3 composite record in three seasons, the legendary Nevers retired as both coach and player in 1932.

▲ Modern Era

Nevers' departure also marked the arrival of a new club owner. Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., a vice president of the Chicago Bears, purchased the Cardinals for Jones' asking price of $50,000. Bidwill divested himself of his Bears' holdings and a new era began.

However, the team sorely missed Nevers' magic on the field. The Cardinals endured difficult years in the 1930s and early '40s. World War II hit the team heavily. The Cardinals' top passer, receiver, and lineman—Johnny Clement, Bill Dewell, and Joe Kuharich, respectively—entered the service. In 1944 as a war-time emergency measure, the Cardinals combined with the Pittsburgh Steelers to play as one team. It was called Card-Pitt. Co-coached by the Cardinals' Phil Handler and the Steelers' Walt Kiesling, a former Cardinal guard, the team split its home games between Chicago's Comiskey Park and Forbes Field in Pittsburgh but failed to win a game in 10 tries.

Success finally returned following the war. In 1945, the arrival of University of Missouri quarterback Paul Christman trumpeted the team's conversion to the "T" formation. Fullback Pat Harder and halfback Elmer Angsman were added in 1946. And in 1947, the "million dollar backfield" was completed when halfback Charley Trippi became a Cardinal.

Coached by Jimmy Conzelman, the 1947 Cardinals stormed to the Western Division title and a 28-21 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the NFL championship game on the frozen Comiskey Park turf.

But the '47 title season was bittersweet for the Cardinals' organization when the April death of Bidwill deprived the owner of witnessing the club's first NFL crown in 22 years. With his passing, Bidwill's widow, Violet Bidwill, assumed control of the franchise for the next 15 years, a span that included a second consecutive Western Division championship and appearance in the NFL championship game, a 7-0 loss at Philadelphia, and the transfer of the team from Chicago to St. Louis in 1960.

Upon Mrs. Bidwill's death in January of 1962, control moved to sons Charles W. Bidwill, Jr. and William V. Bidwill. In 1972, the latter and his family gained sole ownership with William becoming managing general partner. On July 1, 1976, incorporation of the company was accomplished with Bidwill continuing as chief executive officer.

After 14 years in the city, the Cardinals brought their first championship to St. Louis in 1974. The Big Red captured the NFC Eastern Division flag under Head Coach Don Coryell and advanced to the playoffs with a 10-4 regular-season record.

However, the Cardinals lost to the Minnesota Vikings, 30-14, in their first playoff appearance since 1948.

Again in 1975, Coryell provided St. Louis with a division title but another playoff loss, this time to the Rams in Los Angeles, 35-23, ended the Cards' post-season dream in the first outing.

The Cardinals next appeared in the playoffs in 1982 when Head Coach Jim Hanifan's club lost a first-round game at Green Bay, 41-16. In 1984, an offensively explosive St. Louis team narrowly missed the playoffs—and the NFC East title—with a 9-7 record. However, the Cardinals stumbled to a 5-11 mark in 1985, prompting Hanifan's dismissal and the hiring of long-time Dallas Cowboys' assistant Gene Stallings as the team's new head coach.

▲ Arizona

After 28 years in St. Louis, the Cardinals relocated to Arizona in the spring of 1988 and made Sun Devil Stadium on the campus of Arizona State University their new home. Their first season in the Valley of the Sun began optimistically when the team raced to a 7-4 record and a share of the NFC East Division lead. But untimely injuries struck and a five-game losing streak ensued to finish the year, dashing hopes of the club's first post-season berth since 1982. However, the Cardinals' new home provided club single-game (67,139 vs. Dallas in Arizona inaugural game) and single-season (472,937) attendance records in the team's first autumn in Arizona.

Following two seasons in their new locale, the Cardinals changed the face of their team by hiring former Washington assistant Joe Bugel in 1990 as the new Phoenix head coach.

▲ Heritage

Reflecting the rich tradition of the franchise, 12 members of the Cardinals have been enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. They are Charles Bidwill, Guy Chamberlin, Conzelman, Driscoll, Kiesling, Curly Lambeau, Dick "Night Train" Lane, Ollie Matson, Nevers, Jim Thorpe, Trippi, and Larry Wilson. Wilson, the team's current vice president and general manager, was the most recent selection in 1978.

▲ Last Meeting

Dec. 9, 1990 (A) ▲ Cardinals 24, Falcons 13

The Cardinals rode their defense to victory for the third consecutive week in a 24-13 success at Atlanta. Besides intercepting three passes and recovering one fumble, the Phoenix defenders limited Atlanta to 96 yards rushing and 14 pass completions in 31 attempts, including none in five second-half tries. The Cardinals were resourceful as running back Anthony Thompson rambled for 96 yards, including a 40-yard gallop late in the game, his longest run since a 55-yarder as a sophomore at Indiana. Fellow rookie Ricky Proehl registered six catches for 102 yards. Marcus Turner returned his first career interception 47 yards for a score to turn a precarious 17-14 advantage into a solid 24-13 lead and the final margin of victory with 4:51 remaining.

▲ Series Notes

The Cardinals have posted a 9-4 advantage dating back to the Falcons' inaugural 1966 season ... the Cards were victims of Atlanta's first home victory as a new franchise with a 16-10 defeat on Dec. 11, 1966 ... at one stretch in the series, the Cardinals won five straight games (1971-78) ... Phoenix owns a 5-3 mark on the road against Atlanta, including wins in each of the last three contests played there.

▲ Last Meeting

Oct. 28, 1990 (H) ▲ Bears 31, Cardinals 21

The series renewal saw the Cardinals spot the NFC Central Division-leading Bears an insurmountable 28-0 second-quarter lead before falling 31-21 following a strong second-half showing. The Bears scored touchdowns on three of their first four possessions to take a 28-3 halftime lead. Phoenix stormed back behind the passing of quarterback Timm Rosenbach, who passed for 256 yards and enjoyed his third straight game without an interception. The game also included a nine-yard pass completion to wide receiver Roy Green that made him the Cardinals' career leader in pass reception yardage, snapping former tight end Jackie Smith's standard of 7,918 yards.

▲ Series Notes

The Cardinals and Bears boast the oldest regular-season rivalry in NFL history dating back to the 1920s when the two shared the Windy City ... the Bears maintain a 53-25-6 advantage in the series but the Cards have won two of the last three and four of the last seven meetings ... in the most recent clash, the Cardinals set a franchise attendance mark with 71,233 in Sun Devil Stadium last year (Oct. 28), the largest in the history of the series.

▲ Last Meeting

Dec. 16, 1990 (A) ▲ Cowboys 41, Cardinals 10
The Cards' modest three-game winning streak ended as the Cowboys dominated Phoenix for a 41-10 victory. The Cards contributed to their own fate with season lows in first downs (9) and rushing yards (49) and highs in penalties (12) and penalty yards (123) in addition to committing four turnovers (three interceptions, one lost fumble). Eleven of the Cardinals' 14 possessions lasted five plays or less. Dallas running back Emmitt Smith scored four rushing touchdowns to break a Cardinal opponent single-game mark and tie the Dallas standard.

▲ Series Notes

Dallas leads the series by a 33-22-1 margin ... the Cards swept both 1989 contests for the first time since 1970 ... the teams traded home victories last year ... the Cowboys' win in the second meeting snapped a four-game Cardinal series winning streak ... Dallas provided the opposition for the Cards' first regular-season home game in Arizona in 1988, but the Cowboys prevailed 17-14 ... since 1980, Dallas holds a 13-8 lead in the series ... at one stretch from 1967-86, Dallas had won 27 of 36 games in the series, including undefeated streaks of six and seven games, and enjoyed one home stretch of 13-2 against the Cardinals.

(Preseason)

Dec. 16, 1989 (H) ▲ Denver 37, Cardinals 0

The Cardinals suffered their first shutout since 1985 with a 37-0 whitewashing by the Super Bowl-bound Broncos. The game marked the starting debut of rookie Timm Rosenbach, who completed just 2 of 8 passes for 14 yards in six possessions. Scoring in each quarter, Denver took a 20-0 halftime lead, then tallied on its first two possessions of the second half to seal the win. The Cardinals' offense, with only three possessions in the second half, crossed midfield just twice and never came closer to the goal line than the Denver 39-yard line.

▲ Series Notes

The clubs have played just three times during the regular season ... the first contest ended up a 17-17 tie in 1973, the second a 7-0 Bronco win in 1977, and most recently the 37-0 shutout by Denver in Sun Devil Stadium in 1989 ... in the preseason, the Cardinals are 1-6 versus the Broncos ... their only win was a 17-13 victory in 1972.

(Preseason)

Nov. 19, 1989 (A) ▲ Rams 37, Cardinals 14

The Cardinals suffered a one-sided 37-14 loss to the Rams at Anaheim Stadium, a defeat that began a string of six consecutive losses to end the season. L.A. cruised to a 24-0 halftime lead and 27-0 third-quarter advantage before Phoenix dented the scoreboard with a 77-yard touchdown pass from Tom Tupa to Don Holmes. The game marked the debut of Cardinals' rookie quarterback Timm Rosenbach, the third Phoenix signal-caller of the day. In guiding the club on its last three possessions, Rosenbach connected on seven of 14 pass attempts for 81 yards, providing one touchdown and seeing a second halted by an interception in the end zone.

▲ Series Notes

The Rams hold a 16-9-2 advantage in the series dating to 1948 when the two teams were in the NFL's Western Division ... the Cardinals' 41-27 win in 1988 halted a six-game Ram winning streak... the Rams defeated the Cardinals in both the preseason and regular season in 1989 and in the preseason last year ... the Cardinals are 0-5 in preseason games against the Rams in five contests staged on the road ... in regular-season action, the Rams handed the Cards a 35-23 defeat in a first-round playoff game in 1975.

The Cardinals scored in every period for a 41-31 victory over the Vikings in St. Louis behind a balanced offensive effort that produced 182 yards rushing and 238 passing for a season-best 420 yards total offense. Otis Anderson, who missed the previous week with a shoulder ailment, returned to rush for 136 yards on 24 carries while quarterback Neil Lomax connected for three touchdown passes and 241 yards through the air.

▲ Series Notes

The Cardinals maintain a 7-3 series edge over Minnesota, including wins in each of the last four encounters between the teams ... this year will mark the Cardinals' first trip to the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome ... the Cards' last visit to Minnesota was in 1977 when they faced the Vikings at Metropolitan Stadium in a 27-7 Cardinal victory ... in the most recent meeting, the Cards sailed to a 41-31 win at Busch Stadium in St. Louis in 1983 ... the Vikings defeated the Cardinals 30-14 in Minnesota in the first round of 1974 playoff action.

The Cardinals snapped a five-game losing streak behind the 136-yard rushing performance of Anthony Thompson en route to a 34-14 victory over New England, providing the Cardinals' largest margin of victory since moving to Arizona in 1988. With Johnny Johnson sidelined with a sprained ankle, Thompson made the most of his first opportunity for extended playing time with 28 carries and one touchdown. His 136-yard outburst was the most by a Cardinal since Stump Mitchell registered 158 yards rushing vs. New Orleans on Dec. 8, 1985. Quarterback Timm Rosenbach notched a pair of scores on the ground, a first for a Card quarterback since Neil Lomax crossed the goal line twice in 1983.

▲ Series Notes

In six games against New England, the Cardinals have been defeated just once, a 16-6 loss in 1978 ... the Cardinals' victories have been by scores of 31-0 in 1970, 24-17 in 1975, 27-20 in 1981, 33-10 in 1984, and most recently 34-14 last year ... the Cardinals have averaged 29.8 points in the five victories and 25.8 points overall in the series.

▲ Last Meeting

Sept. 23, 1990 (A) ▲ Saints 28, Cardinals 7

The Cardinals self-destructed in their third consecutive regular-season road game. Twelve penalties for minus 106 yards were the primary culprits. Phoenix also lost one fumble, had one pass intercepted, missed a field goal, and had another field goal attempt blocked. A Timm Rosenbach to Ricky Proehl scoring pass (professional firsts for both) tied the game at 7-7 shortly after halftime, but key penalties and the inability to convert in Saints' territory spelled a frustrating defeat for the Cardinals. New Orleans offense scored its first touchdown of the young season after being limited to five field goals in two previous losses.

▲ Series Notes

The Cardinals maintain a 10-6 series edge over New Orleans dating to 1967 ... the games characteristically have been high-scoring affairs ... the Cardinals have averaged 24.8 points, the Saints 20.5 points in the 16 games ... the two teams combined for 93 points in a 51-42 Saints win in 1969, just 10 shy of the all-time NFL record for most combined points in a single game, and set a league standard for most combined touchdowns passing in a game that day as Billy Kilmer (Saints) and Charley Johnson (Cardinals) each tossed six scoring passes ... though it was a preseason game, the Cardinals provided New Orleans with its first victory as a new franchise with 23-14 decision in Shreveport, La. during the 1967 preseason.

▲ Last Meeting

Dec. 23, 1990 (H) ▲ Giants 24, Cardinals 21

For the second time in 1990, the Cardinals-Giants outcome was decided in the final minute. The Cards' best offensive day of the season—452 total yards, 368 yards passing, 16 first downs, and eight plays over 20 yards—was not enough to overcome the eventual Super Bowl champions as Phoenix suffered a loss reminiscent of the heartbreaking 20-19 Oct. defeat at Giants Stadium. Card quarterback Timm Rosenbach enjoyed a career-best passing day, completing 23 of 41 attempts for 381 yards and three touchdowns, including a 68-yard scoring strike to Ernie Jones, a career long. After the Cards spotted New York and its league-leading defense a 10-0 lead, Phoenix cut the deficit to 10-7 at halftime. The teams traded scores during the second half as Phoenix flirted with victory after recovering an on-sides kick at the Giant 40 yard line with 2:09 remaining.

▲ Series Notes

One of the NFL's ancient rivalries and the lengthiest for the Cardinals ... the Giants hold a 14-6-1 advantage in the series since 1980 and 62-33-2 overall in the series that dates to 1926 ... the Cardinals boast the longest win streak, a seven-game stretch from 1974-77, while the Giants currently own a five-game skinn ... the Giants provided the opposition for the final game in the 1974 season when the Cardinals roared back from a 14-0 halftime deficit for a 26-14 win and their first division crown since 1948.

Dec. 29, 1990 (H) ▲ Eagles 23, Cardinals 21

Phoenix spotted the Eagles a 13-0 lead that grew to 23-7 early in the fourth quarter. But the Cardinals stormed from behind with a pair of Timm Rosenbach scoring strikes to rookie Ricky Proehl and J.T. Smith on successive possessions to narrow the margin to 23-21 with less than two minutes left. The comeback fell short in a repeat performance from the week two thriller the Cardinals won by the identical score. Proehl's seven receptions gave him a team-leading 56 for the season, a Cardinal rookie record. He also became the first rookie to lead the club in receiving since Bob Shaw in 1950. Rosenbach also finished the season in grand fashion with his second straight 300-yard passing game that included three touchdowns.

▲ Series Notes

The Cardinals hold a 44-40-5 advantage in the series dating to 1935 ... in the last six years the Cardinals have lost nine of 12 contests ... the teams figured in consecutive NFL championship games in the 1940s ... the Chicago Cardinals edged the Eagles 28-21 in frozen Comiskey Park on Dec. 28, 1947 for the NFL title ... the Eagles avenged that loss with a 7-0 victory in Shibe Park on Dec. 16 to earn the title.

Nov. 6, 1988 (H) ▲ Cardinals 24, 49ers 23
Before 64,544 fans, the Cardinals erased a 23-0 third-quarter deficit to the eventual Super Bowl champions with two touchdowns in the final 2:19 to earn a pulsating 24-23 comeback victory. The Phoenix defense yielded 233 yards and 14 first downs in the first half but then limited the 49ers to eight first downs and 134 yards after intermission, including only six yards total offense in the fourth quarter. After quarterback Neil Lomax connected on scoring tosses to Roy Green and Ernie Jones to carve the lead to 23-17, linebacker E.J. Junior stopped 49er quarterback Steve Young just inches short of a first down, giving Phoenix the ball with 1:27 left, without a timeout. Lomax guided the Cards 66 yards in seven plays. The clincher was a nine-yard scoring strike to Green with three ticks remaining. Al Del Greco's point after touchdown sealed the second-best comeback in team history. (A 28-point comeback win over Tampa Bay, Oct. 8, 1987 ranks first.)

▲ Series Notes

The Cardinals and 49ers have shared success equally at 8-8 in the series that dates to 1951 ... the 23-0 shocker in 1988 (see above) broke a string of five consecutive 49er wins ... the Cardinals are 5-4 on the road against San Francisco but 0-3 in the last three contests at Candlestick Park.

Sept. 17, 1989 (A) ▲ Cardinals 34, Seahawks 24
With Roy Green (8-166, 3 TDs) and J.T. Smith (7-104, 1 TD) combining for 15 receptions, 270 yards receiving, and all four touchdowns, the Cardinals sailed to a 34-24 victory in the Kingdome. Phoenix controlled the ball, scoring touchdowns on drives that began on its own 4, 10, 22, and 26-yard lines, and converting 10 of 12 third-down plays. Quarterback Gary Hogeboom completed 18 of 24 attempts for 298 yards and four touchdowns, including an impressive second half when he completed eight of nine passes for 119 yards. Green became the Cardinals' all-time touchdown leader with 62, eclipsing former receiver Sonny Randle's total of 60.

▲ Series Notes

The Seahawks hold a 5-2 advantage in the preseason series ... the two teams first met in 1981 as the Cardinals prevailed 30-21 in the Kingdome ... Seattle won by scores of 14-0 in 1982 and 17-7 in 1984 ... Seattle has won the last three preseason meetings, 21-7 in 1988, 16-10 in 1989, and 34-9 last year ... the Cardinals have won all three regular-season battles—30-24 at Seattle in 1976, 33-28 at St. Louis in 1984, and 34-24 in the Kingdome in 1989 ... Seattle is the only team that has not defeated the Cardinals in regular-season play.

Sept. 30, 1990 (H) – Redskins 38, Cardinals 10
After dropping a 31-0 season-opening decision to the Redskins in the nation's capital three weeks earlier, the Cardinals took a 10-7 halftime lead in the return match. Rookie running back Johnny Johnson gained 91 yards rushing in an evenly-fought first half. But after intermission, the Redskins tallied 31 unanswered points with tell-tale advantages in total yards (311-88), rushing yards (128-2), passing yards (183-47), and time of possession (21:03-9:57). Making his first professional NFL start, Washington quarterback Stan Humphries completed 20 of 25 passes for the injured Mark Rypien for 257 yards and two 42-yard scoring tosses to Gary Clark.

▲ Series Notes

The Redskins have won 27 of the last 32 games and hold a 55-31-1 advantage in the series dating to 1937 ... the Cardinals' first contest against Washington in 1988 was of landmark proportions as the 30-21 win Sept. 25 provided the franchise its first home-field success in Arizona ... that win also snapped a seven-game Redskin series winning streak ... the Cardinals eventually defeated the Super Bowl winners from the three previous seasons in Sun Devil Stadium (Washington, N.Y. Giants and San Francisco) in 1988.

SUN DEVIL STADIUM

Sun Devil Stadium, home to Arizona State University football since 1958 and the Fiesta Bowl since 1971, added the National Football League to its glamorous past in 1988 when the Cardinals also took residence in one of the nation's finest football facilities.

Literally carved from the desert, Sun Devil Stadium sits in a spectacular setting between two mountain buttes in Tempe, Arizona southeast of Phoenix.

Sun Devil Stadium proved a most hospitable host to the Cardinals in the team's inaugural season in Arizona in 1988 when seven of the Cards' eight regular-season home games broke the club's previous single-game attendance record. The season total of 472,937 fans also easily eclipsed the Cardinal franchise's single-season home attendance mark.

Originally erected in 1958, Sun Devil Stadium has been expanded four times (1976, '77, '88, and '89). Capacity for NFL football in 1991 will be over 74,000. Improvements costing over $20 million the past four years have made the facility a football showcase. The bowl (south) end was connected two years ago by Arizona State's dramatic six-story Intercollegiate Athletic Complex building and an extension of loge-level seats. A state-of-the-art video replay scoreboard and locker rooms in the north end also were added. The color video replay system, situated in the southwest corner, offers fans instant replays of game action. A complementary matrix board for messages and statistical information sits in the southeast corner.

In 1989, another $11.5 million was spent to construct a three-story, 60,000 square-foot building atop the upper deck on the west side containing two 30-suite levels and topped by a modern press box and eight additional private suites. Served by four industrial-sized elevators—one for the media and three for the public—the addition offers working space for 200 sportswriters, new broadcast booths, booth space for statistical crews, coaches, public address personnel, security, scoreboard operations, and replay officials, and a rooftop camera deck in addition to suite seating for over 900 fans.

For the second consecutive year, a new playing surface of Tifway "419" turf, an optimal sports turf, will be in place. In anticipation of mid-field wear and tear, hot water pipes have been laid between the 40 yard lines and hash marks to regenerate the Bermuda grass and keep it from going dormant in the fall.

Prior to the 1992 season, a major three-component project is planned that will widen and lower the field and include a new turf system with subsurface drainage.

Sun Devil Stadium seats 74,733 fans for NFL football.

Sun Devil Stadium, located on the campus of Arizona State University, is home to the Cardinals, ASU's Sun Devils, and the Fiesta Bowl.

TRAINING COMPLEX

The face of south Tempe has changed.

Rising from a former cotton field on Warner Road approximately one mile east of Interstate-10 is the Cardinals' training facility and corporate headquarters.

Covering 14.7 acres of land, the Cardinals' new home since September of 1990 is a 94,000 square-foot state-of-the-art facility sporting desert building materials and Southwestern landscaping that leaves no doubt where the team calls home.

Possessing many characteristics that distinguish it as both a football facility and as an Arizona landmark, the complex already has won architectural awards.

It incorporates local materials such as copper, desert brick, and clay tile, complemented by desert landscaping which integrate into the natural surroundings.

Environmentally sensitive, it utilizes passive solar energy to light offices and corridors while employing masonry and shadow to eliminate heat.

The interior joins many important concepts. Specificity of design is reflected in the workout areas on the first level where a number of planned activities can occur simultaneously. Facilities are situated along a logical traffic pattern to accommodate a progressive flow of activities.

The first floor consists of player facilities that include the training area, an auditorium, locker room, hydrotherapy (15-player in-floor sauna and cold plunge) and spa rooms, indoor/outdoor weight-training room, offensive and defensive meeting rooms, and film/videotape rooms open to three playing fields (one lighted) on nearly five acres of land.

The second floor comprises the administration and operations areas that include the coaching staff's offices. On the second and third floors, natural lighting and breezeways combine with advanced communications technology to create the most flexible office space possible. The integration of current electronic and construction technologies also makes the facility more economical to operate and easier to maintain.

The main building is flanked by a two-story attached building that includes a public area, the ticket office, and the public relations department housing a media center complete with custom-designed work carrels, private interview rooms, televisions, and a reference library, and another two-story building housing two handball courts to complete the NFL's newest complex.

Furthermore, many details are invisible to the naked eye. The fields and team building are set at the same angle as Sun Devil Stadium, the Cards' home field at Arizona State University, allowing simulation of the position of the sun under game conditions.

The Cardinals' award-winning training complex is located in south Tempe, Arizona.
